Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

BOSTON, May 19.

Monday laſt arrived here Captain MALLARD, in a Maſt-Ship, from London, which he left the 2d of April, and has brought Prints to the 31ſt of March; from which we have the following Advices, viz.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

"GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip between Us, the Moſt Chriſtian King, and the King of Spain, to which the King of Portugal hath acceded, hath been concluded at Paris on the Tenth Day of this inſt. March; in Conformity thereunto, we have thought fit hereby to command, that the ſame be publiſhed throughout all our Dominions: And we do declare to all our loving Subjects our Will and Pleaſure, that the ſaid Treaty of Peace and Friendſhip be obſerved inviolably, as well by Sea as Land, and in all Places whatſoever, ſtrictly charging and commanding all our loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and to confirm themſelves thereunto accordingly.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the 21ſt Day of March, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

[London Gazette.]

LONDON, March 27.

Yeſterday morning the Peace was proclaimed, purſuant to his Majeſty's royal warrant, ſigned for that purpoſe. The ceremony was as follows:

At ten o'clock the Officers of arms aſſembled at St. James's Gate, properly apparelled, on horſeback; when the proclamation of his Majeſty's Declaration of Peace was made, with the uſual ſolemnity.

Guards to clear the way.
Conſtables and Beadles, two and two, bare-headed, with ſtaves.
The high Conſtable.
The Officers of the High Bailiff of Weſtminſter.
The High Bailiff.
The Grenadier Guards.
Knights, Marſhal Men, two and two.
The King's Trumpets.
The Serjeant Trumpeter, bearing his Mace.
Purſuivants and Heralds, two and two.
Norroy King at Arms, having on each ſide a Serjeant at Arms with a Mace.
Garter, Principal King at Arms.
A Troop of Horſe Guards.

At Charing-Croſs Peace was proclaimed a ſecond time.

From thence they proceeded to Temple-Bar, where the officers of Weſtminſter retired, and within the gate the Lord Mayor, Alderman and Sheriffs performed the uſual ceremony, at their entrance into the city.

Then proclamation was made a third time at the end of Chancery-lane; then at the end of Wood-ſtreet, in Cheapſide, where the Croſs formerly ſtood.

Their Majeſties, and moſt of the Royal Family, were at the windows over the gate-way at St. James's, to hear the Proclamation read.

It is ſaid the Peace was proclaimed yeſterday, by agreement, in Paris, Madrid, and Lisbon, as well as London.

Paul Fiſher, Eſq; of Clifton, near Briſtol, who died lately, has left to the Magdalen Hoſpital 200l. and to the Society for propagating the Goſpel 2000l. to be diſpoſed of in the following Manner; 500l. of it to propagating of the Goſpel in America, 500l. encouraging the Proteſtant Working Schools in Ireland, and the remaining 1000l. for the Uſe of the firſt Biſhop that ſhall be appointed in America, with the Intereſt of the ſame, provided ſuch a See be conſtituted in 25 Years. And it is greatly to be hoped that ſuch a well intended Bequeſt will not be loſt for ſuch a neceſſary Eſtabliſhment in our now widely extended Empire in America; eſpecially as many Romiſh Biſhops have been long eſtabliſhed in thoſe Parts by the French and Spaniards,

The late worthy Biſhop of Cloyne has told us, that in 1725 there were many Churches vacant in our Plantations, and many very ill ſupplied; nor could all the Vigilance and Wiſdom of that Prelate, whoſe peculiar Care it was, prevent this, ſo long as thoſe Churches are ſupplied from England: And ſupplied they muſt be with ſuch as can be picked up in England or Ireland, until a Nurſery of Learning for the Education of the Natives is founded; which might provide a conſtant Succeſſion of learned and exemplary Paſtors; and we may eaſily judge what Effect this muſt be ſuppoſed to have on their Flocks.

Moſt certainly, the Eſtabliſhment of Epiſcopacy in our American Empire would be attended with infinite Advantages, as well to the Mother Country, as to her Colonies. American Miſſionaries may be then employed for the Converſion of America, and the Savages be brought to a Life of Civility and Religion.

The laſt Reſort of Juſtice in our Colonies is ſolely lodged in the King's ſacred Perſon, with the Advice of his Privy Council, excluſive of Weſtminſter-Hall, or any other Judicature. The brightening of this Jewel in the Crown, may not perhaps be thought unworthy the Care of the preſent happy Reign, to which the Improvement and future Security of ſo large a Part of the Britiſh Dominions, the Advancement of Trade, univerſally ſupporting the glorious Cauſe of Liberty, ſeem to be preſerved by the peculiar Hand of Providence.

LONDON.

March 26. It is ſaid, that the deſign of putting all our provinces in North-America under military government, is laid aſide.

The Betſy and Ruth, Truman, of Boſton, was ſpoke with by the Betſy, from Maryland, bound to the Orkneys, having loſt her main maſt.

This day the Definitive Treaty of Peace was proclaimed at the uſual places round the outparts of London and Weſtminſter, by the Sheriff of Middleſex, attended by the proper Officers.

We are informed, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Harcourt, Maſter of the Horſe to the Queen, will be appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

And that James Stuart Mackenzie, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the county of Roſs in Scotland, will go Ambaſſador to the Court of France, on the return of his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

March 28. The King of Pruſſia is coining new ſpecie to the amount of ten million of crowns.

A contract has been made, by a French Commiſſary now in England, for twenty thouſand ſuits of cloaths, for the uſe of the French priſoners, to be delivered before their departure for their own country.

We can aſſure our Readers, that His Majeſty will not viſit his Electoral Dominions this year.

It ſaid the Queen lies-in in June.

The houſe of Peers ſat on Monday night till near ten o'clock, and was never known to be fuller.

March 30. By the 8th article of the treaty of Hubertſburgh, the Empreſs Queen and the King of Pruſſia promiſe to reſtore the ſubjects of either, that were compelled to enter into the ſervice of the other.

And by an article of the treaty between the Kings of Poland and Pruſſia, the former cedes to the latter all that he poſſeſſes on the farther ſide of the Oder, and the ſuperiority of the banks of that river; for which he is to receive an equivalent, the amount of which is not mentioned in the treaty.

Ships of war are fitting out at Breſt, to carry over garriſons to the French Weſt-India Settlements.

To Martinico are to be ſent 1080 men. To Guadaloupe 1080. To Cayenne 540. To St. Lucia 200. To St. Domingo 430. In all 3330.

A new Treaty of Commerce is on the carpet between France and Holland.

The 10th of May falling on one of the Rogation Days, the General Thankſgiving for the Peace will be obſerved on Thurſday the 5th of May.

A number of Teachers are retaining to be ſent to New-York and Philadelphia, for the two Colleges eſtabliſhed in thoſe Colonies.

March 31. We are told, that a great change is already begun amongſt the Miniſtry. It is ſaid his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire will be made Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, in the room of Lord Bute, who will be made Lord Chamberlain of the Houſhold; Mr. Pitt to be Secretary of State; and ſeveral great Commoners, who now enjoy high poſts, on their reſignation, will be created Peers.

The account in the papers that Lord Cheſterfield was to be appointed Preſident of the Privy Council, is doubtleſs without foundation, on account of his Lordſhip's great age and infirmities.

Ten ſhips of war are ordered to be fitted for North-America, and to be there ſtationed.

The French King has appointed the Count de Guerchy, Lieutenant General of his armies, and Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, his Ambaſſador to this Court; and he is to ſet out for London immediately, after the proclamation of the Peace.

John Newe, Eſq; of Plaiſtow, in Eſſex, was laſt Night interred at Weſt-Ham. He has left, amongſt other charitable legacies, 100l. to the Society for erecting Proteſtant ſchools in Ireland; and 100l. for the propagating the Goſpel in foreign parts.

We are aſſured, by authentick advices from Paris, that the French Eaſt-India Company have preſented a memorial to the Court of Verſailles, requeſting to be exempted from ſending a garriſon to Goree, as it is not worth the expence.

There appears to be no foundation for the report of the King of Pruſſia's ſetting up claims on the Dutch.

Col. Joſias Martin, Speaker of the Aſſembly in Antigua, is appointed Captain-General of the Leeward iſlands, in the room of George Thomas, Eſq;

The cargo of the Spaniſh man of war loſt near Ramſgate, is valued at upwards of 70,000l.

If credit may be given to ſome private letters by the laſt Dutch mail, Col. Draper has executed his expedition againſt the Philippine iſlands with ſucceſs.

Cowes, March 26. The 24th came in the Triton, Cathcart, from South-Carolina for this Port,

By the HAPPY RETURN, Captain JOHNSTON, from Liverpool, we have the following Intelligence, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

RATISBON, March 1.

HIS Imperial Majesty's Decree to the Diet of the Empire, in answer to the Result of the Empire of the 11th of this month. Dated the 24th of February, 1763.

TRANSLATION from the GERMAN.

BY the command of his Imperial Majesty Francois, our most gracious Emperor and Master, his most respectable and principal Commissary and Plenipotentiary at the Diet of the Empire, Alexander Ferdinand, Prince de la Tour et Taxis, &c. makes known to the Counsellors, Ambassadors, and Ministers of the Electors, Princes, and States of the holy Roman Empire, that his Majesty has seen, by the most humble Remonstrances which have been made to him, that his Decree, sent to the publick Dictature the 20th of last month, concerning the re-establishment of the universal tranquility and safety of the Empire, has been proposed, and that the Counsellors, Ambassadors, and Ministers of the Electors, Princes, and States, having agreed on the most humble advice of the Empire, the 11th of this month.

The Electors, Princes, and States of the Empire, are already informed, that her Majesty the Empress Queen, postponing her essential interests, has magnanimously acceded to the paternal sentiments, with which his Imperial Majesty the Emperor is animated, for re-establishing the tranquility, and for preserving the fundamental laws and system of the Holy Roman Empire.

The more her Imperial Majesty the Empress Queen has been convinced of the ardour, with which the States of the Empire have desired a speedy return of the tranquility, and publick security, the more she has exerted her endeavours in the negociations of peace lately entered upon with his Majesty the King of Prussia, to accelerate the said tranquility, and the good of her Co-estates, inseparable the one from the other, and to shew thereby her thankfulness and gratitude. The success has answered this flattering expectation, and Providence has been pleased to put an end at once to this destructive War, by the Definitive Treaty of Peace concluded and signed the 15th inst. at Hubertsberg; the Ratification of which, by the contracting Parties, is instantly expected.

As his Majesty was willing that the several States of the Empire should be informed, without delay, of this happy event, he has annexed hereto the Articles of the said Peace which regard the Empire, leaving the Electors, Princes, and States, to take, for the future, the measures that shall appear most necessary to them.

As to his Majesty, he wishes, as a true Father of the Empire, that the general Peace, re-established in this manner, may last for ever; and, by virtue of his Imperial Office, he will not fail to give his utmost attention to every thing that may contribute to so salutary an object.

He will not cease to make the exercise of his most high office consist in the administration of a speedy and impartial justice; in the exact execution, and solid maintenance, of the salutary Laws and Decrees of the Empire; and in the inviolable Protection of the Liberties of the States, and of the dispositions made for the Good of both Religions.

But as his Imperial Majesty, on his side, is desirous of punctually fulfilling all these objects, without losing sight of the true and essential Good of the German Empire, and of all its States in general, his Majesty most graciously persuades himself, that the Electors, Princes, and States, will, on their part, always take care to discharge, with the same exactness, whatever the duty of the States of the Empire, and the publick Good of their native Country, require of them all in general, and of every one in particular; and that they will principally apply themselves to observe religiously and inviolably the Publick Peace; the Peace of Religion, and the Peace of Westphalia.

In the mean time, his Imperial Majesty, to whom belongs the supreme direction in the affairs of War, will lose no time in making dispositions, that the Army of the Empire, which was assembled, by virtue of the Resolution of that Body, in 1757, may be dismissed, and sent home, without delay, in the same good order, with all that belongs to it, but in a manner compatible with the dignity of the Empire, which his Majesty doubts not but the Electors, Princes, and States, will observe in the present conjuncture.

To this end, his Imperial Majesty has already sent orders to the General in Chief of the Imperial Army, and that of the Empire, to discharge, in good order, the succours raised by the Empire, and to send them to their respective Circles, where the Directorial Princes will be able to make such regulations, on this occasion, as the constitution of the Empire requires of them.

Signed at Ratisbon, the 24th of Feb. 1763.

ALEXANDER Prince de la TOUR et TAXIS.

TRANSLATED from the FRENCH.

ART. II. There shall be on both sides an eternal oblivion, and a general amnesty of all hostilities, losses, damages, and wrongs, committed during the late troubles, by either party, of what nature soever; so that there shall be no farther mention made of them, nor any compensation demanded, under any pretence, or upon any consideration whatsoever. The respective subjects of each power shall never be molested upon that account, but shall fully enjoy this amnesty, and all its consequences, notwithstanding the avocatory letters which have been issued and published. All confiscations shall be entirely taken off; and such goods as have been confiscated, or sequestred, shall be restored to the proprietors, who were in possession of them before these last troubles.

ART. IV. All hostilities shall entirely cease on both sides, from the day of the signature of the present treaty of peace. For this end the necessary orders shall be immediately dispatched to the armies and troops of the two high contracting parties, wheresoever they may be; and in case, through ignorance of what has been stipulated in this respect, any hostilities shall have been committed after the day of the signature of the present treaty, they shall not be deemed to affect this treaty in any manner; and in this case, the men and effects, which may have been taken and carried away, shall be faithfully restored.

ART. V. Her Apostolic Majesty, the Empress Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, shall withdraw her troops from all the countries and States of Germany, which are not under her dominion, within the space of twenty-one days after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty; and within the same term she shall cause to be entirely evacuated, and restored to his Majesty the King of Prussia, the county of Glatz, and, in general, all the States, countries, towns, places, and fortresses, which his Prussian Majesty possessed before the present war in Silesia, or elsewhere, and which have been occupied by the troops of her Apostolic Majesty the Empress Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, or by those of her friends and allies, during the course of the present war. The fortresses of Glatz, Wesel, and Gueldres, shall be restored to his Prussian Majesty in the same state, with regard to the fortifications, in which they were, and with the artillery that was found therein when they were taken. His Majesty the King of Prussia shall withdraw, within the same space of twenty-one days after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty, his troops from all the countries and States of Germany, which are not under his dominion; and he shall evacuate and restore, on his side, all the States and countries, towns, places, and fortresses of his Majesty the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, agreeably to the treaty of peace, which has been concluded this same day between their Majesties the Kings of Prussia and Poland; so that the restitution and evacuation of the provinces, towns, and fortresses respectively occupied, shall be made at one and the same time.

ART. VI. The contributions and deliveries, of what nature soever they be, as well as all demands of recruits, pioneers, waggons, horses, and in general, the things furnished upon account of war, shall cease from the day of the signature of the present treaty, and every thing that shall be exacted, taken or received after this epoch, shall be restored punctually, and without delay.

Each party shall renounce all arrears whatsoever of contributions and deliveries. The bills of exchange, or other written promises, which have been given on either side respecting these matters, shall be declared void, and of none effect, and shall be restored gratis to those who gave them. The hostages also, which have been taken or given, with regard to the same, shall be released without ransom: Every thing above-mentioned shall take place immediately after the exchange of the ratifications of the present treaty.

ART. VII. All prisoners of war shall be reciprocally and faithfully restored, without ransom, and without regard to their number, or military rank, on their paying, however, previously, the debts which they shall have contracted during their captivity. Each party shall naturally renounce what has been furnished or advanced to them for their assistance and maintenance; and the same proceeding, in all respects, shall be observed with regard to the sick and wounded immediately after their recovery: To this purpose, each party shall name Generals or Commissaries, who shall, immediately after the exchange of the ratifications, proceed, in the places that shall be agreed upon, to the exchange of all the prisoners of war. Every thing that is stipulated in this article, shall equally take place with respect to the States of the Empire, in consequence of the general stipulation contained in the XIXth Article. But as his Majesty the King of Prussia, and the States of the Empire, have themselves subsisted and maintained their respective prisoners of war, and as, upon this account, some individuals may have made advances, the high contracting parties do not mean to derogate, by the above stipulations, from the pretensions of the said individuals in this respect.

ART. XIX. The whole Empire is comprized in the stipulations of the IId, IVth, Vth, VIth, and VIIth Articles. And by virtue thereof all the Princes and States shall fully enjoy the effects of the said stipulations. And whatsoever is therein stipulated and agreed on between her Majesty the Empress Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, and his Majesty the King of Prussia, shall take place equally and reciprocally between their said Majesties, and all the Princes and States of the Empire. The Peace of Westphalia, and all the other constitutions of the Empire, are likewise confirmed by the present Treaty of Peace.

Warsaw, Feb. 23. To-morrow Te Deum is to be sung here, for the Conclusion of the Peace with Prussia.

Genoa, Feb. 7. We have an account from Leghorn, that our troops have miscarried in an attack against Furiani, in Corfica, and been repulsed, even to the neighbourhood of Bastia. A Captain of the Rebels, however, was taken prisoner, and conducted to Bastia. We know not yet the amount of our loss. The two regiments which the Rebels were raising, are actually compleated. Our Republick is entering upon a negotiation with the Imperial Court, for obtaining a considerable corps of troops, which she will take into her pay, to bring the rebels to their duty.

Hamburgh, March 2. Our trade increases apace since the peace in Germany: A number of ships now in our port wait only for a favourable wind to sail for France and Holland.

The Republick of Poland has the affair of Courland greatly at heart. Several Courts, that of France, amongst others, which has particular reasons for being attached to that of Warsaw, waits only for the resolution of that Republick, to take part in favour of the Prince of Saxony, and to make Russia depart from the obstinacy with which that Power, without any plausible colour or pretext, has undertaken to strip the Son of a Monarch with whom she is in friendship, to substitute a Lord whom she had herself disgraced and banished, and who even obtained his liberty and recal, but on condition of his renouncing the dutchies whereof he is now put into possession; a renounciation which has certainly been given, and never been revoked in form.

Berlin, Feb. 26. To indemnify the peasants of Prussian Pomerania, who have hitherto been slaves, for the damages suffered by the enemy's troops, the King has enfranchised them, for ever. The like favour granted some time ago to the peasants of Prussia and Silesia, would have gained all their hearts.

Hague, March 4. The Deputies of the Admiralty of the Province of Holland are met. The subject of their deliberations we suppose to be the rupture with Algiers, which is looked on as near and unavoidable. We learn, with concern, that the commissaries sent to England by our East-India Company, have as yet done nothing; nor has the Count de Welderen made any progress in the negotiation begun for renewing the treaties between England and this State.

Leipsic, March 21. All Saxony is to be evacuated by the Prussian troops this day. There remain only the Pomeranian regiments in the neighbourhood of Torgau and Wittemberg. The King of Prussia is still at Dahlen. The ratifications arrived the 28th of that month. Our Sovereign the King of Poland, has forbid all his subjects to give any shelter to Prussian deserters.

Dublin, March 22. Yesterday, upon receipt of the joyful news of the General Peace being ratified to all the Powers in Europe, the great guns in his Majesty's Park Phœnix, fired several rounds, which were answered by the troops in the barracks, with vollies of small arms, and at night there were the greatest rejoicings throughout this Metropolis, which concluded with ringing of bells, bonfires, illuminations, and every demonstration of joy.

Belfast, March 22. The Lords of appeals have reversed the judgment of the Vice Court of Admiralty of Jamaica, condemning the ship Gen. Johnson, and brig Jenny, belonging to Belfast and New-York, for having loaded sugars at Monto Christi, and ordered said vessels and cargoes to the owners.

New-Castle, March 19. By a letter from Berwick, dated the 15th instant, we learn, that dreadful have been the effects of the late storm along the coast in that neighbourhood: A large vessel, name unknown, attempting the harbour at Holy Island, struck upon the Megstone, and immediately sunk; all the crew perished: Another brigantine, very near the entrance of the Bar shared the same misfortune: A third, a sloop belonging to Lynn, and loaden with coals from Sunderland, soon succeeded to the fate of the former: And the Nancy, Bryan Burlinton, a brigantine belonging to Plymouth, loaden also with coals from the same port, missing the Bar, overset among the breakers, and immediately righting again, drove upon the rocks at the Castle-point; but four of the hands were saved, by the assistance of a boat from the shore; the rest, among which was the Master, having been wash'd overboard; the ship and cargo it is hoped will be saved: A ship, appearing to be pretty large, was seen on Sunday upon one of the Farn Islands, with some of her sails flouncing, from whence it is feared the hands are all lost: One also is sunk to the Eastward of the Islands; and another overset, lies floating in the Fare-way: Half of a sloop is driven ashore near this place, and the fore-part of another smaller one near Budal. In short the shores are strewed with wrecks and dead bodies; a great number of ships passed, during the storm, without the islands, for Leith, about whose safety there is little reason to be anxious; and above twenty sail of others got safe into Holy Island, though some of them have lost their masts, and otherwise received damage; and the men are generally half-dead, with hardships and fatigue.

LONDON, March 19.

They write from Berlin, that his Prussian Majesty had signified his intention of promoting the trade and commerce of his subjects; and that orders would speedily be issued for inviting all foreigners, particularly those who have been well instructed in the mechanic arts and sciences, to settle in the electorate of Brandebourg, where they are not only to enjoy some peculiar privileges, but will have the inspection of particular branches of business that will be set on foot under their direction, and which were never before manufactured in that country.

A letter from Brunswick, dated March 9, says, "His Serene Highness Prince Ferdinand being last week at dinner with some of the nobility of the Court, entertained the company with a relation of what passed between the King of Prussia and himself during his late visit to that Monarch; when his Highness said, amongst other things, that his Prussian Majesty greatly lamented the number of experienced officers he had lost in the course of the war; and looked upon it as a peculiar blessing and providence, that himself, who had equally exposed his Person with their's in all the principal battles, had not received one dangerous wound."

March 22. Some of the French inhabitants in Canada are selling their estates to English subjects, in order to retire either to France, or to some of the French colonies in America.

Last Wednesday a new dock was opened at Plymouth yard, to receive his Majesty's ship Union, of 90 Guns; and altho' it was a remarkably low Spring-tide, she went in with the greatest ease, and had more water than was sufficient. This dock is reckoned the largest in England, and thought to be equal to any in Europe.

The King of Portugal is going to keep a regiment of light-horse, and the horses are to be sent from England.

March 26. It is said encouragement will be given to our disbanded soldiers to go and settle at Quebec, and our other acquisitions on the river St. Lawrence.

We hear that the works of Milford Haven will be carried on, notwithstanding the peace, which will be a means of giving employment to a considerable number of our discharged seamen and soldiers.

The last letters received from Silesia, dated the 7th of this month, give an account, that all the fortifications of Schweidnitz were repaired, and that trade already began to flourish there as formerly.

The French have entirely evacuated all the places belonging to the King of Prussia upon the Lower Rhine, and his Prussian Majesty's troops have taken peaceable possession of them.

The Hollanders by the last mail say, that they began already to feel the good effects of the peace in Germany, by the expansion of their trade more and more every week throughout the country.

General Kingsley's regiment, which came over with the second division from Germany, are ordered to Winchester. This regiment has remarkably distinguished itself in nine battles, in one of which they lost half their men, and in the whole have lost near 1000 men since the commencement of the war, whose places were continually filled up as occasion required, to keep them complete.

Some officers, and two engineers, are gone, or going to Dunkirk, to view the fortifications of that place, which are to be demolished by treaty, and to view the new works erected during the two last wars.

We hear that the underwriters (in consideration of the bravery of our British tars) are come to a resolution to insure no ships but those that are wholly navigated by such hands, as it would be very impolitic to continue foreign sailors in the merchants service after the conclusion of the peace.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, March 23.

"Yesterday the Tamar sloop was paid off in the harbour. There is an order for six small ships to be put in commission again, the Rainbow (a 40 gun ship, which will be the commodore) Vulture, Trial, Tamer, Fly, and Viper sloops, to go to Halifax."

March 29. It is said the garrison of Belleisle will be transported to Minorca.

It is said a negotiation is on the carpet, for a marriage between the Duke of Savoy and the Daughter of the King of Portugal.

BOSTON, May 23.

Thursday last Capt. Gage arrived here in 22 Days from Martinico. A French Man of War was arrived there from France, with several French Officers on board, in order soon to take Possession of that Place.-------The English were in much Confusion on Account of their moving off so soon.

Extract of a Letter from Surrinam, March 22.

"A few Days ago an Express arrived here from Berbicia, giving an Account that the Negroes of two Plantations, belonging to Mr. Vanderforter, had burnt the Houses, murdered the white People, and made off. Another Express arrived Yesterday, with Advice, that Twenty-two Plantations more were cut off by the Negroes, who, in a most cruel Manner, murdered all the white People they could come at.-------The Inhabitants are in a most miserable Condition, being obliged to take Refuge on board the Ships, and it is generally thought that the Colony will be intirely ruined."

By Advices from London, of the 23d of March, we learn, that the House of Commons have voted the same Sum as a Compensation to the Northern Colonies for the Year 1762, as was voted the last Session for 1761; which Sum was 133,000 l. Sterling.

We also hear, that it has been proposed to lower the Duties on French Melasses, from 6d. to 2d. per Gallon, in order the more effectually to secure the Payment; which it was thought would be carried through before the Rising of the Parliament.

Yesterday arrived here Captain Thompson, in 19 Days from the Havannah, by whom we learn, that our Troops which remain there are in general very healthy, and that they were preparing to embark, as soon as the Spanish Soldiers, &c. should arrive to take Possession of the Place: That the Spanish Prize Men of War were fitted for the Sea, and lay ready to sail for England; but that the two Ships of the Line found on the Stocks were broke up, and the Dock-yards, Store-houses, &c. were all destroyed, and rendered useless.

NEW-LONDON, May 29.

Captain Duncan arrived last Saturday; the 27th of April, Lat. 27. Lon. 66, 40, he spoke with the Ship Pennsylvania Packet, Isaac Awl, from Philadelphia, all well.

NEW-YORK, May 30.

Saturday last the Brig Stuart, Captain Auld, arrived here, in 11 Weeks from Glasgow: Some Time ago, in Lat. 30. 20. Capt. Auld spoke with a Vessel called the Britannia, Capt. Stillwell, from this Port, bound for London.

Philadelphia, May 3, 1763.

PURSUANT to an Advertiſement, publiſhed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, for March and April 1763, the Members of the Philadelphia Contributionſhip, met at the Court Houſe, in this City, and, after having choſe their Chairman, proceeded to the Conſideration of the Queſtions therein inſerted, which were,

Firſt, Whether it will not be as beneficial to the Members, that the Intereſt Money ariſing from the Stock, ſhould be carried to one common Account, and be applied as directed by the 21ſt Article of the Deed of Settlement, "in diſcharging the Expences of the Office;"---the Surplus or Remainder may be paid towards ſatisfying any Loſs that ſhall happen by Fire; as to be at the extraordinary Trouble and Expence in calculating each Contributor's Proportion of Intereſt, and crediting him therewith, and debiting his Account with his Proportion of all the Expences of ſaid Office, and his Contribution, towards every Fire?

Second, That no Part of the Depoſite-money ſhall be expended in repairing, or paying for, any Damage done by Fire, until the Ballance of the Intereſt-money, as ſhall accrue to the Time of ſuch Fire, be firſt expended.

Which Queſtions, being duly conſidered by the ſaid general Meeting, they unanimouſly agreed, that the Intereſt-money ariſing to the Office, ſhould be carried to one common Account of Intereſt, and not to the particular Credit of any of the Members; and, that the Charges and Loſſes of the Office ſhould be deducted out of ſaid Intereſt-money, before the Depoſite, or Premium-money ſhould be ſubject to a Contribution for any Fire.

The Contributors to this Inſtitution, are therefore requeſted to take Notice, that from, and after the 11th Day of April 1763, their particular Accounts are not to have Credit for the Intereſt ariſing on their Depoſite-money; but that it is to remain in the Treaſury, and be applied towards diſcharging the Expence of the Office;---and the Surpluſage, towards paying for ſuch Loſſes as may happen by Fire.

By Order of the Directors,

ROBERT OWEN, Clerk.

By the HONOURABLE

JAMES HAMILTON, Eſq;

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, upon Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS divers Perſons, the natural born Subjects of His Majeſty, belonging to ſome of the neighbouring Colonies, have, without any Licence or Grant from the Honourable Proprietaries of this Province, or Authority from this Government, made ſeveral Attempts, in Bodies, to poſſeſs themſelves of, and ſettle upon, a large Tract of Land, within the Limits of this Province, not yet purchaſed from the Indians, lying at and between Wyoming, on the River Saſquehannah, and Cuſhietunck, on the River Delaware, and in the upper Parts of Northampton County; and have alſo endeavoured to perſuade and enveigle many of the Inhabitants of this and the neighbouring Provinces to confederate and join with them, in ſuch their illegal and dangerous Deſigns, and to aſſiſt in ſettling and holding the ſaid Lands by ſtrong Hand. AND WHEREAS the Delawares, and other Tribes of Indians, who reſide within that Tract of Country between Wyoming and Cuſhietunck, and alſo the Six Nation Indians, have, as well at public Treaties, as at divers other Times, repeatedly made Complaints and Remonſtrances to me againſt the ſaid Practices and Attempts, and, in the moſt earneſt Manner, requeſted and inſiſted that the ſaid Intruders ſhould be removed, by the Government to which they belonged, or by me, and declared if this was not done, the Indians would come and remove them by Force, and do themſelves Juſtice; but deſired that the ſaid Intruders might be previouſly acquainted therewith, that they might not pretend Ignorance. AND WHEREAS notwithſtanding I have already iſſued two Proclamations, viz. the Firſt dated in February, 1761, and the Second dated the Sixteenth Day of September following, to apprize the ſaid Intruders of their Danger, and to forbid their ſettling on the ſaid Lands, and ſtrictly enjoining and requiring, in His Majeſty's Name, all thoſe who had preſumed to ſettle on any Part thereof, immediately to depart, and move away from the ſame; yet I have lately received Information, and freſh Complaints from the ſaid Indians, that divers Perſons, in Contempt of ſuch my ſeveral Proclamations, and the Threats of the Indians, do ſtill perſiſt in their ſaid Deſign, and are now actually ſettling on divers Parts of the ſaid Lands, about Wyoming and Cuſhietunck.

WHEREFORE, as well to continue my Endeavours to preſerve the Peace and Friendſhip, which is now ſo happily reſtored and ſubſiſting between us and the Indians, and to prevent the miſchievous and terrible Conſequences of their carrying into Execution ſuch their Threats, from which I am greatly apprehenſive the Indians cannot any longer be reſtrained, if the ſaid Intruders ſhall not immediately relinquiſh their Deſign of ſettling the ſaid Lands; as alſo again to warn any of the Inhabitants of this Province from being unwarily drawn in to join the ſaid Intruders, in ſuch their unjuſt Deſigns of making Settlements in the ſaid Indian Country; I HAVE judged it proper, before any Force ſhall be uſed againſt the ſaid Intruders, by and with the Advice of the Council, to iſſue this my Third PROCLAMATION, hereby again ſtrictly requiring and enjoining, in His Majeſty's Name, all and every Perſon and Perſons, already ſettled and reſiding on the ſaid Lands (Indians excepted) immediately to depart and move away from the ſame. AND DO hereby forbid all His Majeſty's Subjects, of this, or any other Province or Colony, on any Pretence whatſoever, to intrude upon, ſettle or poſſeſs, any of the ſaid Lands, or any other Lands within the Limits of this Province, not yet purchaſed of the Indians, as they will anſwer the contrary at their Peril, and on Pain of being immediately proſecuted with the utmoſt Rigour of the Law. AND hereby alſo ſtrictly charging, enjoining and requiring all Sheriffs, Magiſtrates, Peace Officers, and all other His Majeſty's Liege People within this Province, to exert themſelves, and uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to proſecute and bring to Juſtice and condign Puniſhment, all Offenders in the Premiſes.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the Second Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, and in the Third Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE III. by the Grace of God of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth.

JAMES HAMILTON.

By His Honour's Command,
JOSEPH SHIPPEN, junior, Secretary.

GOD Save the KING.

THE CONNOISSEUR, written by Mr. TOWN, Critic and Cenſor General of Great-Britain. A Collection of the moſt witty and entertaining Eſſays, written in the Manner of the Spectator and Tatler; what Shakeſpeare calls the "Form "and Preſſure of the Times," is more immediately viſible in the CONNOISSEUR, than in any Thing of this Kind ever yet ſeen, and in

The PICTURE of the AGE,

Which is here exhibited to us; beſides the Correctneſs of the Drawing, the Similitude of Features, and the exact Proportion of every Part, there is a Fire and Spirit peculiar to good Painters, which animates, invigorates and enlivens the whole.

The CONNOISSEUR amongſt a moſt agreeable Variety of Subjects treats of the following;

An Account of a new Order of Females, called Demi Reps. Of a Plague lately broke out, with the Effects of it amongſt Members of Parliament, Officers of the Army and Navy, Aldermen, the Nobility, Maids of Honour, at Court, &c. &c. Letter on married Peoples fondling and toying before Company, with the Behaviour of a loving Couple at Dinner. On Free-thinking. Letters complaining of the Whiſperers and Gigglers amongſt the Fair Sex: Inſtance of their rude Behaviour during a Viſit; at Divine Service, &c. &c. On Betts; particularly the Cuſtom of ſtaking one Man's Life againſt another. Letter, proving the City of London to be an Univerſity, and that Arts and Sciences are taught there in greater Perfection than at Oxford and Cambridge. Deſcription of a Quack Doctor, and a Company of ſtrolling Players. Character of Lady Belle Modeley, and the Colonel her Huſband, with the Education of their Son and Daughter, and the Conſequences thereof. On the Vanity of People making Appearance above their Circumſtances, with the Pride and Poverty of a certain little Frenchman. On Conſcience, with the terrible Exit of Tom Dare Devil, a Buck and an Atheiſt, together with his Life and Actions. On Boxing, with a Deſcription of a very famous Boxing Match between Slack and Petit. Letter on Duelling, with Propoſals for making Duels public Diverſions. Letter on Snuff-taking. Letter on the Villa's of Citizens and Tradeſmen, with a Deſcription of a Sunday's Viſit to a Citizen at his Country Houſe. On Dreſs. On Courtſhip. On Orator Henley. On the Turf, with a ſprightly Deſcription of the famous Newmarket Horſe-Races. Study of the Engliſh Language recommended. An humorous Survey of the Audience at the Play, the Behaviour of Perſons in the Boxes, Pit, Gallery; of the Ladies of Pleaſure, and of the fine Gentlemen on the Stage. Two pretty Letters from a pretty Miſs in Breeches, and from a Blood in Petticoats. On Frolicks. On good Company. Characters of a Gameſter, Drunkard, Lounger, Wranglers, &c. Of keeping Secrets. Of Match-making. Of Drinking. Of Love. Of keeping Low Company. Of the Knowledge of the World, &c. &c.---------This moſt excellent Miſcellany has paſſed through many Editions, is univerſally read, and has greatly contributed to reform the depraved Taſte and Manners of the Age, &c. &c.

NEW-YORK, June 6.

At Seven o'Clock Yesterday Evening the Ship Edward, Captain Davis arrived here from London, but last from Falmouth, in five Weeks, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, April 19.

Copy of a Letter from Vice Admiral Cornish, to Mr. Cleveland, dated in the Bay of Manilla, the 31st of October, 1762.

IT is with the greatest Pleasure I have the Honour to acquaint their Lordships with the Success of his Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of the City of Manilla, which was taken by Storm, on the Morning of the 6th Instant. In my Letters of the 23d and 31st of July, I acquainted their Lordships with my Proceedings to that Time; after which I used every possible Means at Madrass for Dispatch, the Decline of the S. W. Monsoon making it of the utmost Importance. To promote this End, I compleated the Elizabeth, Grafton, Lenox, Weymouth and Argo, with such of the Troops and military Stores as they were to take on board; and on the 29th sent them away, under the Command of Commodore Tiddeman, to proceed to Mallaca, with a View that they might compleat their Water there, by the Time I should arrive with the Remainder of the Squadron.

Having accomplished the Embarkation of every Thing designed for the Expedition, with a Dispatch much beyond my Expectation, as we had, from the whole Time of my being there, a violent Surf to contend with, I sailed the 1st of August, with the Ships under-mentioned, viz. Norfolk, Panther, America, Seaford, South-Sea Castle Store Ship, Admiral Stevens's Store Ship, Osterly Company's Ship, leaving the Falmouth, at the Request of the President and Council, to convoy the Essex India Ship, who was not ready to sail, having the Treasure to take on board for the China Cargoes, and to bring to Manilla such of the Company's Servants as were to be put in Possession of that Government, if the Expedition succeeded.

The 19th I arrived at Mallaca, and was disappointed in not finding Mr. Tiddeman there, who did not join till the 21st, having met with long Calms: The Difficulty of watering the Squadron at this Place, made it the 27th before I could leave the Road.

On the 2d of September I arrived off Pulo Timean, and was joined by Captain Grant, in the Sea-Horse, whom I had detached, upon my first Arrival at Madrass, to cruize between this Island and the Streights of Sincapore, to stop any Vessels he might suspect going to Manilla.

On the 19th I made the Coast of Luconia, but was drove off again by a strong N. E. Wind, which separated some of the Squadron. The 22d the Gale broke up, and the Wind shifting to the S. W. the 23d we recovered the Land again; the next Day entered the Bay of Manilla, and, in the Close of the Evening, anchored off the Fort of Cavite, with the whole Squadron, except the South-Sea Castle, and Admiral Stevens; the Falmouth and Essex having joined me off the Coast. In the Night I sent the Masters to sound about the Fortifications of Cavite, and, by their Report, found that it might be attacked by Ships.

The 25th, in the Morning, the Wind not being favourable to attack the Cavite, I took two of the Frigates, and with General Draper, and some other Officers, reconnoitred the Shore about Manilla, and observed some Churches, and other Buildings, to stand near the Works, on the South Side of the Town, particularly towards the S. W. Bastion. We had some Design of attacking Cavite first, to have had the Conveniency of that Port for the Shipping; but considered, that though the Attack should be attended with all the Success we could hope, yet it would cause a Delay of two Days at least, before we could land at Manilla, which Time would afford Opportunity to the Enemy to demolish these Buildings near their Works, and to prepare many Obstacles to our Landing, and perhaps recover from that Consternation our unexpected Arrival had thrown them in; and farther, Manilla being the Capital, if that fell, Cavite would in Consequence.

From these Circumstances, I joined in Opinion with the Gen. to take Advantage of Circumstances so favourable for a Descent, and land the Troops with all Dispatch, and endeavour to get Possession of some Posts near their Works, which, if effected, would greatly facilitate the Reduction of the City.

In Consequence of these Resolutions, I immediately made the Signal on board the Seahorse, for the Squadron to join me, and for the Troops to prepare to land. About 7 in the Evening the 79th Regiment, with the Marines in the Boats, under the Direction of the Captains Parker, Kempenfelt and Brereton, pushed for the Shore; and under the Fire of the three Frigates, effected the Landing at a Church called the Moratta, about a Mile and a Half from the Walls. We had no Opposition from the Enemy, but some Difficulty from the Surf, which ran high, and bilged all the Long-boats, but happily lost no Men. The next Morning the General took an advanced Post, about 200 Yards from the Glacis, and there, under Cover of a Blind, intended his Battery against the Face of the S. W. Bastion. The Number of Troops being small, I landed a Battalion of Seamen, of about 700 Men, under Command of the Captains Collins, Pitchford, and George Ourry.

The 25th I dispatched three armed Boats after a Galley coming up the Bay to Manilla; they came up with her, resolutely boarded her, and took her, notwithstanding she kept a smart Fire with Patteraroes and Muskets; she mounted two Carriage and 17 Brass Swivel Guns, and had 80 Men. By Letters found in her, we discovered she was dispatched from the Galleon St. Philippina, from Acapulco, and whom she had left the 10th of September, at Cajayagan, between the Embocadero and Cape Spiritu Santa. Upon this Discovery I came to a Resolution to send the Panther and Argo in Quest of her, but it was the 4th of October before the Weather permitted their sailing.

The 28th of September the Gen. acquainted me, that he was beginning to work on the Battery, and that if some Ships could get near enough to throw Shot on the Works of the Town opposite to it, it might take off some of the Enemy's Fire and Attention, and thereby facilitate its Construction. In Consequence of this, I ordered Commodore Tiddeman, with the Elizabeth and Falmouth, towards the Town, as near as the Depth of Water would permit, and to place the Ships in such a Position as would best answer the Purpose intended, which was accordingly done the next Day, and their Fire had a very good Effect.

On the 30th, the South Sea Castle arrived with Stores, which were much wanted, particularly the entrenching Tools, for want of which the Army had been so greatly distressed, that I was obliged to employ all the Forges in making Spades, Pickaxes, &c. for them. The First of October it began to blow fresh, and in the Night increased to a hard Gale, which drove the South Sea Castle ashore near the Pulverista, a little to the Southward of our Camp. This Accident, however, had some considerable Advantages attending it, as the Situation she lay in, made her Cannon a Protection for the Rear of our Camp: It was likewise the Means that all her Military Stores were got on Shore with Safety and Dispatch, and the Army supplied with the Provisions she had on board, both which were Articles they stood in immediate Need of, and which could not have been supplied by Boats, as it continued blowing Weather for several Days after, and the Surf breaking very high on the Beach. This Gale was from the W. S. W. directly on the Shore, which gave much Concern for the Elizabeth and Falmouth, who were only in four Fathom Water, and, as I have since been informed, with the Send of the Sea struck; but the Bottom being Mud, and soft to a considerable Depth, they received no Damage. On the 4th in the Morning the General opened the Battery, which was so well managed, and seconded by the Ships before the Town, that in four Hours the Defences were taken off, and the next Day in the Evening the Breach was made practicable.

On the 6th, at Day-light in the Morning, the General's Regiment, with the Sea Battalion, mounted the Breach, made the Attack, and soon got Possession of all the Bastions; which compleated the Conquest. I immediately went on Shore, and, with the General, had a Meeting with the Spanish Governor, and some of his principal Officers, when a Capitulation was agreed on, that the Town and Port of Cavite, with the Islands and Forts depending on Manilla, should be given up to his Britannick Majesty, and that they should pay Four Millions of Dollars for the Preservation of the Town and their Effects (a Copy of which Capitulation I have enclosed.)

On the 10th I sent Capt. Kempenfelt in the Norfolk, with the Seaford and Seahorse, to take Possession of Cavite, agreeable to the Capitulation; by this Acquisition we are in Possession of a very large Quantity of Naval Stores; and besides the Advantage of almost every Convenience for refitting a Squadron, the People are supplied with fresh Meat and Vegetables in great Plenty.

The Siege, though short, was attended with many Difficulties, and great Fatigues, in which both the Officers and Men exerted themselves with the utmost Chearfulness. We had constantly fresh Gales, a Lee Shore, and consequently a high Surf to contend with, which made it always difficult, frequently hazardous, and sometimes impossible to land with Boats. The Rains fell very heavy, and our little Army were surrounded and harrassed by numerous Bodies of Indians, who, though undisciplined, and armed only with Lances, and Bows and Arrows, yet by a daring Resolution, and Contempt of Death, they became not only troublesome but formidable. I have the Satisfaction of acquainting their Lordships, that throughout the whole Expedition, the most perfect Harmony and Unanimity has subsisted between his Majesty's Land and Sea Forces.

You will receive with this an Account of the Number of Officers and Men, both Seamen and Marines, that were landed from the Squadron, as likewise of the killed and wounded in each Corps. It is with Concern I acquaint their Lordships with the Loss of Commodore Tiddeman, who in attempting to enter the River in his Barge, the Morning after the Reduction of Manilla, was drowned, with five of his People; by which unhappy Accident, his Majesty has lost a brave and experienced Officer.

Capt. Kempenfelt, by whom I send this (and will present to you for their Lordships, a Plan of the Town of Minilla, and the Port of Cavite) has been of the greatest Assistance to me during the Course of this Enterprize; he is very capable of furnishing their Lordships with many Particulars necessary for their Information; and his great Merit makes it my Duty to recommend him as a very able good Officer. I am, &c.

S. CORNISH.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Cornish to Mr. Cleveland, dated in the Bay of Manilla, the 10th of November 1762.

IN my Letter of the 31st of October, I acquainted you of my having sent Capt. Parker, with the Panther and Argo, in Quest of the Galleon St. Philippina, from Acapulco, bound to Manilla.

The 7th Instant Capt. King, in the Argo, returned with a Letter from Capt. Parker, acquainting me, that in Consequence of my Orders, having, the 30th of October, got the Length of the Island Capul, near the Entrance of the Embocadero, in Pursuit of the Saint Philippina, where the Argo had come to an Anchor (and which he intended to do for that Night) just as the Day closed saw a Sail, and stood to the Northward; at 8 in the Evening he got Sight of the Chace, about two Leagues to Leeward, but unluckily, by the Rapidity of a Counter Current, to what the Chace was in, was drove among the Narango's, in the utmost Danger of being lost, and obliged to anchor; the Frigate having escaped the Danger of being lost, got up with the Chace, and engaged her near two Hours; but was so roughly handled, that Capt. King was obliged to bring to, to repair his Damages.

By this Time the Current slackened, which enabled Captain Parker to get under Sail with the Chace in Sight: About Nine the next Morning he came up with her, and after battering her near two Hours she struck. The Enemy made but little Resistance, trusting to the immense Thickness of the Sides of their Ship, which the Panther's Shot was not able to penetrate, excepting her upper Works. Captain Parker was no less disappointed than surprized, when the General came on board, to find that, instead of the Saint Philippina, he had engaged and taken the Santissimo Trinidad, who departed from Manilla the first of August for Acapulco, and had got 300 Leagues to the Eastward of Embocadero; but meeting with a hard Gale of Wind, was dismasted, and put back to refit. She had 800 Men on board, and pierced for 60 Guns, but when Captain King engaged her, had only six mounted, and but 13 when taken: She draws 33 Feet Water, and is a much larger Ship than the Panther. I cannot ascertain the Value of her Cargo, but there is to the Amount of one Million and a Half of Dollars registered, and she is computed to be worth three Millions.

Capt. King left the Panther with her Prize at an Anchor about three Leagues South of the Corrigedow, at the Mouth of this Bay; and as I have sent a Reinforcement of Men with Lanches and Warps, I hope very soon to have them in Safety. I am, &c.

Westminster, April 19.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinson Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give His Royal Assent to the several Bills that were ready. After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious SPEECH.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I CANNOT put an End to this Session of Parliament, without expressing my Thanks for the signal Zeal and Dispatch which you have manifested in your Proceedings, and which make it unnecessary for me to continue it any longer.

I informed you at your first Meeting, that Preliminary Articles were signed by my Minister and those of France and Spain; I ordered them to be laid before you, and the Satisfaction which I felt at the approaching Re-establishment of Peace, upon Conditions so honourable to my Crown, and so beneficial to my People, was highly encreased, by my receiving from both Houses of Parliament the strongest and most grateful Expressions of their intire Approbation. These Articles have been established, and even rendered still more advantageous to my Subjects by the Definitive Treaty; and my Expectations have been fully answered, by the happy Effects which the several Allies of my Crown have derived from this salutary Measure. The Powers at War with my good Brother the King of Prussia, have been induced to agree to such Terms of Accommodation, as that great Prince has approved, and the Success, which has attended my Negotiation, has necessarily and immediately diffused the Blessings of Peace through every Part of Europe.

I acquainted you with my firm Resolution to form my Government on a Plan of strict Oeconomy. The Reductions necessary for this Purpose shall be completed with all possible Expedition; and altho' the Army maintained in these Kingdoms will be inferior in Number to that usually kept up in former Times of Peace, yet I trust that the Force proposed, with the Establishment of the National Militia (whose Services I have experienced, and cannot too much commend) will prove a sufficient Security for the future.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have seen, with the highest Concern, the great Anticipations of the Revenue, and the heavy Debts unprovided for during the late War, which have reduced you to the unhappy Necessity of imposing further Burthens upon my People. Under these Circumstances, it is my earnest Wish to contribute, by every Means, to their Relief. The utmost Frugality shall be observed in the Disposition of the Supplies which you have granted; and when the Accounts of the Money, arising from the Sale of such Prizes as are vested in the Crown, shall be closed, it is my Intention to direct, that the Produce shall be applied to the Public Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Extension of the Commerce of my Subjects; the Improvement of the Advantages we have obtained; and the Increase of the Publick Revenue, are the proper Works of Peace. To these important and necessary Objects, my Attention shall be directed. I depend upon your constant Care to promote in your several Counties that Spirit of Concord, and that Obedience to Law, which is essential to good Order, and to the Happiness of my faithful Subjects. It is your Part to discourage every Attempt of a contrary Tendency; it shall be mine firmly to maintain the Honour of my Crown, and to protect the Rights of my People.

Then the Lord Chancellor prorogued the Parliament to Thursdas the 23d Day of June next.

St. James's, April 20. His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Hon. Hugh Earl of Northumberland, Lieutenant General, and General Governor of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

April 22. His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to his Grace George Duke of Marlborough, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered unto him; and his Grace took his Place at the Board accordingly.

St. JOHN (in ANTIGUA) April 27.

Extract of a Letter from Bartholomew Putman, Master of the Schooner Leopard, who sailed from this Island the 21st Instant, bound for Martinico, dated Basseterre, Guadaloupe, April the 25th, to a Person in this Town.

"It is with much Grief I acquaint you of my great Misfortune, which I met with the 23d at one o'Clock in the Morning, five Leagues Distance from Dominco, W. S. W; being boarded by a Spanish PIRATE, and after being stript and used barbarously, was turned adrift with my Boat without Water, or Provisions of any Kind.

"I cannot inform you rightly where she belonged to; only from what they told me, which was, that she did belong to the Island of Margaritta, and that the Captains Name is Antoney.-----She had one carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 24 Hands; but had manned six Prizes, and for the most Part cruises off Dominico, and has been there for 5 Weeks. I beg you send this Account to my Owners in Salem."

The above Schooner of Capt. Putman's is about 80 Tons Burthen, Newberry built, long and narrow; this her second Voyage from New-England; has a long Quarter Deck, which takes in her Main-mast and Pumps; has a Scuttle under the Tiller before the Rudder-case of about 18 or 20 Inches square; her Cabbin Floor neatly ceiled; has plain solid Quarter Pieces; had two Top-masts to carry standing Top-sails; tarred Sides, and black Bottom.

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, May 7.

By the Georgia Gazette it appears, that from the 4th of January 1762, to the 5th of January 1763, the exports of that province amounted to 7440 whole, and 119 half barrels of rice, 9633 lb. of indico, 96 hogsheads and 832 bundles of deer-skins, 13 bundles of beaver-skins, 417,449 feet of pine lumber, 292 barrels of pork, 688,045 shingles, 359,002 staves and heading, 33 barrels of beef, 1250 bushels of indian corn, 776 bushels of rough rice, 246 barrels of tar, 1602 sides of tanned leather, 10,500 hoops, 1050 hand-spikes, and 2033 oars.

Exported from the same province, from the 5th of January to the 4 of April 1763, 10 chests and 5 bales of raw silk, 7497 lb. indico, 107 hogsheads and 1226 bundles of deer-skins, 1970 whole, and 26 half barrels of rice, 79,093 feet of pine lumber, 298,069 shingles, 92,410 staves and heading, 579 sides of tanned leather, 30 barrels of tar, 161 barrels of pork, and 14 barrels of beef.

Last Tuesday warrants were issued for above 150,000 more acres of land in that part of this province which lies to the Southward of the Alatamaha; and grants are now passing for several tracts that have been surveyed in consequence of warrants issued the first Tuesday in last month.

The following is what we have been able to learn further regarding the French prisoner that was taken in the Cherokee nation by Mr. Sumpter in Feb. last. His name is Baron des Jonnes; he is a Canadian by birth, a lieutenant in rank, and has been a partizan this whole war; he was at fort Pittsburgh at Grant's defeat, and Forbes's triumph; the last post he came from was Assumption, which he left for killing his man, the duel was an odd one, with guns at fifty paces; he met the great Warrior in the woods, and returned to the nation with him; and expressed great inclination to return to Canada, notwithstanding his life would be exposed. We are told this, and some prevarication, occasioned his being sent as far from the means of breeding disturbance as possible, he being actually on his passage to England in the Nightingale.

May 14. The last vessel from the Havanna, has brought back great part of the goods she carried thither; all trade being at an end since they had accounts, by way of Gibraltar, of the signing of the definitive treaty of peace. A Spanish fleet, which it was said had been spoke with, was daily looked for there; and our people expected to move about this time. The bishop of Cuba was returned thither from St. Augustine, with many of the Spanish Inhabitants of Florida.

At St. Augustine they pretend not to believe, that that fortress will be ceded to Great-Britain; but that a negociation was on foot, to allow the nation some advantages in trade, in lieu of it.

May 21. Monday last arrived here Capt. Webster, from the Havannah, which he left the 6th instant. On the 5th, he says General Keppel issued a proclamation, requiring all British merchants and others there, to close their affairs by the 10th, and hold themselves in readiness to quit the place immediately upon the arrival of a Spanish fleet and garrison, then hourly expected.---But we hear not a word of the Spaniards making preparations to evacuate Florida at the same time, or of any British troops going from any where, to take possession of the said province, or that of Louisiana, ceded to his majesty, by the definitive treaty of the 10th of February last.

After many expensive and fruitless attempts, and immense trouble, his Majesty's snow the Epreuve, commanded by Peter Blake, Esq; stationed at Georgia, was last week got off from the land bank, near Cockspur in Savannah river, whereon she was driven, and has lain ever since the 18th of March.

ANNAPOLIS, May 26.

We have the following Account from Aquia, in Virginia: On Friday the 13th Inst. about 8 in the Evening, they had there a very severe Gust, with very large Hail: A neighbouring Planter's Dwelling-house Chimney was struck with the Lightning. In the Chimney stood an Iron Spit, one End resting on the Mantle-piece, and the other pointing up the Chimney; exactly under it stood the Man's Son, a Boy about 7 or 8 Years of Age, who was struck instantly dead, and the Mantle-piece shivered to Pieces.

BOSTON, May 30.

By a Gentleman lately arrived from Jamaica, we learn, That on or about the first of April, a Number of Negroes in the Country having attempted an Insurrection on the Inhabitants, a Party vent out againſt them, and ſpeedily put a Stop to their Progreſs, after their barbarouſly murdering ſeveral of the Settlers there. Several of the Negroes were taken and executed before the Gentleman left that Place.

NEW-HAVEN (in Connecticut) May 28.

Laſt Tueſday two uncommon Animals were ſeen in Milford, which being purſued, betook themſelves to the Water, and were followed by a Number of People in a ſmall Veſſel, and were taken; the He One was ſtrangled in the Water by a Rope's being made too faſt about his Neck. The She One is now alive, is big with Young, and is about 14 Hands and a half High.---They are of much the ſame Colour of a Deer, and are extremely nimble; they have a Neck, about the Length of a common Horſe's, and ſhort Mane, and have little ſhort Knobs of Horns; the He One was about 16 and a Half Hands High; and thoſe that eat of his Fleſh ſay, it taſted a good deal like Veniſon.

They were tho't to have been Elks, when they were firſt taken: ----But they don't at all anſwer the Deſcription we have had of thoſe Animals, which are ſaid to be about the Size of a Mule, and to have a large Horn.

NEW-YORK, June 2.

On Tueſday laſt arrived the Brigantine Goſport, Capt. Alexander Taylor, in 8 Weeks from Gibraltar, from whence Admiral Saunders's Squadron ſail'd for England three Days before he left that Place, where Sir Piercy Brett, and Commodore Amherſt, were left with 3 ſhips of the Line, and 3 Frigates.

An Engliſh Veſſel had lately been taken by the Salletines, and a Man of War was ſent to Sallee, to demand Reſtitution.

Yeſterday arrived the Sloop Jane, Capt. Wright, in 18 Days from New-Providence, by whom we learn that Governor Shirley, with his Family, was ready to take his final Departure from that Place, from which he was expected to ſail in three Days after Capt. Wright, for Boſton, from whence he was to proceed to England; and that the Hon. John Gambier, Eſq; was deputed to ſucceed him in the Government of that and the other (Bahama) Iſlands under his Command, after his Departure.

Advices were received there as late as the 1ſt of May from the Havannah, which was to be reſtored to the Spaniards on the 19th of May, and evacuated by the Engliſh.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.

Captain Hardy, for this Place from London, ſailed in Company with Captain Davis; and Captain Bolitho, alſo for this Port, was in the Downes, and was to ſail the Day after Captain Davis.

Captain Stewart, from this Harbour, and Captain Smith, belonging here, but laſt from South-Carolina, are both arrived at Briſtol; and Captain Friend is arrived at London from Spain, where he was carried by a Spaniſh Privateer, on his Paſſage from this Place.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, May 31.

"We have moſt melancholy Accounts here----The Indians have broke out in ſeveral Places, and murdered Colonel Clapham and his Family; alſo two of our Soldiers at the Saw-mill, near the Fort, and two Scalps are taken from each Man----An Indian has brought a War Belt to Tuſcarora, and ſays Detroit is inveſted; and that St. Duſky is cut off, and Enſign Pawley made Priſoner----Levy's Goods are ſtopt at Tuſcarora by the Indians---- Laſt Night eleven Men were attacked at Beaver Creek, eight or nine of whom, it is ſaid, were killed----And Twenty-five of Macrae's and Aliſon's Horſes, loaded with Skins, are all taken."

Arrived at Antigua.

To be SOLD or LETT,

On the moſt reaſonable Terms, in the County of Morris, in the Eaſtern Diviſion of the Province of New-Jerſey,

A GOOD two Story Houſe, with 4 Rooms on a Floor, 50 Feet long by 30, a good Kitchen and Cellar; the Houſe is juſt finiſhed off in a genteel Manner, ſtands near the Court-houſe, in a ſmall Town, of near 60 Houſes, moſt of which have been built within theſe three Years paſt; about a Quarter of an Acre of Land with the Houſe; alſo a Lot of 13 Acres, divided from it only by a Road; likewiſe a Tract of 80 Acres, lying about a Mile from ſaid Houſe, 40 Acres of which is good drained Meadow, now having a goood Crop of Engliſh and Timothy on it, the reſt Wood Land; alſo a Tract of 450 Acres of good Marſh, lately drained, and moſt of it now fit to plough, and will bring good Corn, Oats, Flax, Hemp, or any Sort of Graſs. Any Perſon that inclines to purchaſe or rent any of the above Premiſes, may know the Terms, by applying to JOHN BUDD, at Salem, who can give an indiſputable Title to all the aforeſaid Lands, except the 13 Acre Lot, which he chooſes to rent. § 3 Ms.

To be LETT for a Term of Years, to an Innkeeper of Credit and good Character,

THE Tenement of Townſide, moſt commodiouſly ſituated, and accommodated for the Purpoſe. It lies in the moſt direct Path North and South from one Colony through and to another, and ſhorter Diſtance by at leaſt 8 or 9 Miles than any other Road. A Tavern has always been greatly wanted near the Spot, on Account of its being at a convenient Diſtance from both Warwick North, and the Widow Dockery's South, about 17 Miles. The Sight is eminently beautiful, the Houſing are abundantly ſufficient for a well accuſtomed Tavern, with Cellars, Stable, Cow and Hen Houſes, Kitchens, Meat Houſes, &c. a well ſtocked Garden, hanging over Cheſter River, and 18 Acres of excellent Paſture, divided by Poſts and Rails into many Lots. The Ferry, which, with great Coſt, is juſt now ſhortened to leſs than a Stone's Caſt, by Means of a Cauſe-way 16 Feet broad, and about 60 Rods in Length, with a Frame Landing and Skgow, will be alſo rented to the Tavern. This Place is alſo nobly ſituated for Trade; for many Years there was no other of any Account in theſe Parts till you come to Talbot, witneſs Sir E. C. Baronet, upon whoſe wiading up his Clue here, the Trade became divided, and ſcattered about to New-town, George-town, Queen's-town, the Mills, the Traps and the Fairs, but Townſide remains in the ſame Place, in a better Condition than when it flouriſhed moſt; upon this Account I reſerve to be rented to a Batchelor Merchant, what is compleatly convenient for his Purpoſe, viz. a very good Brick Store Houſe, with barred Windows and Shutters, a Cellar throughout, Lodging Room, &c. above, Privilege of a Canoe Ferry for his Cuſtomers of Queen Ann's County, and Paſture and Stable Room for two Horſes; the Ware-houſes, Granary and Wharff, which a Veſſel of 2000 Buſhels may lie cloſe to and load. The Store and the Inn will be of mutual Advantage to each other.

If a Merchant Houſekeeper ſhould chuſe a Leaſe of all Townſide, he may have it, and a Tavern may be erected in Queen Ann's County; as I expect to be ready in the Fall to remove to my Farm, in Queen Ann's, either of the Premiſes may then be entered upon,---I ſuppoſe we have been ſufficiently particular, and refer the reſt to Treaty. H. CALLISTER.

To be SOLD,

To be Sold or Lett, for a Term of Years,

A HOUSE and LOT in George-Town, on Saſſafras River, Kent County, Maryland, very convenient for a Merchant; the Houſe is 25 Feet ſquare, a good Cellar under the Whole, four Rooms on the lower Floor, and three on the upper Floor, with a good Kitchen; and at the end of the ſame Lot, adjoining the River, there is a very good Houſe, ſuitable for a Granary, which will contain ſome Thouſand Buſhels of Grain, and the Lot runs into the River, on which may be built a Wharff.

N. B. It is the ſame Lot that Samuel Sloſs lately lived on, and the Houſe almoſt new. For Terms apply to William M'Ilvaine, of the City of Philadelphia, Merchant, or to Mr. Charles Wilſon, Merchant, in George-Town.

 All Perſons indebted to Samuel Sloſs, by Book Accounts, are hereby deſired to pay their reſpective Ballances to William M'Ilvaine, of the City of Philadelphia, Merchant, who is poſſeſſed of the ſaid Samuel Sloſs's Books, with a regular Aſſignation and irrevocable Power of Attorney to receive the ſame; or to Mr. Charles Wilſon, of George-Town, Merchant, Attorney for William M'Ilvaine. THE fine Cheſtnut Colt, STERLING, now in the Poſſeſſion of Mr. Anthony Tate, in Newtown, Bucks County, will cover this Seaſon a certain limited Number of Mares, not exceeding twenty Leaps, and Trials, at Two Piſtoles, the Money to be paid when the Mare is offered. STERLING is but three Years old, near 14 Hands 3 Inches high, ſtrong and beautiful, with a fine Blaze down his Face, and in all reſpects as promiſing as any Colt in America, for getting Horſes fit for either Race or Saddle. He was got by a Son of Old Spark, Half-brother to the famous Pacolet; his Dam by Telemachus, who was got by Blaze, a Son of the Duke of Devonſhire's Childers, out of the Confederate Filly, that was got by Old Grantham. Telemachus's Dam was got by Goliah, out of a famous Mare, bred by Mr. Oſbaldiſton, in Yorkſhire, that was out of a natural Barb Mare: Goliah was got by Old Fox, and won ſeven King's Plates of One Hundred Guineas each, in one Summer. STERLING's Dam was out of a Mare got by Col. Ricketts's famous Barb, from a running Mare, a good Winner.

Good Graſs for Mares, and proper Care taken of them, at a reaſonable Rate. §

PERTH-AMBOY, June 6, 1763.

THE General Aſſembly of this Province met here the 25th of laſt Month, and next Day His Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq; our Governor, made the following SPEECH to the Council and Aſſembly, viz.

Gentlemen of the COUNCIL, and Gentlemen of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY;

WHEN it pleaſed His Majeſty graciouſly to honour me with His Commiſſion for this Government, I conſidered it as a particular Felicity to be placed in that Station among a People that I knew, and whoſe general Character is ſo truly eſtimable.

Not having received any Commands from the King or His Miniſters, which required your immediate Conſideration, I poſtponed the Pleaſure of meeting you in your Legiſlative Capacity, till a Time, that from the beſt Information I could procure, was leaſt likely to interfere with your private Affairs.

Two Events have lately occurred, of great Import to the Welfare of the Britiſh Nation, on which you have my moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations---

---The auſpicious Birth of a Prince, on a Day ever ſacred to Liberty, and the Proteſtant Cauſe, cannot but diffuſe Joy throughout the King's Dominions, as it gives us the pleaſing Proſpect of a Continuation to our Poſterity, of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings of civil and religious Liberty, which we have enjoyed without Interruption, under the preſent Royal Family---

---The Termination of a long and burthenſome War, by the late Definitive Treaty, is an Event as happy as it is glorious. A Peace is obtained for us by the Succeſs of His Majeſty's Arms, and the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of His Councils, that cannot be parallelled for ſolid national Advantages, by any recorded in the Britiſh Annals, if in thoſe of any other Nation: For indeed how rarely does it happen, that thoſe Powers who have been long engaged in War, find themſelves ultimately benefited by it? Who of all the Princes of Europe, concerned in the late War, in which many of them had almoſt exhauſted their laſt Reſources, has acquired any Addition of Territory, or any Compenſation for Loſſes ſuſtained, ſave only our moſt illuſtrious Sovereign? As in every Quarter of the Globe he was victorious; ſo in every Quarter he has retained ſome important Advantage, which the Nation was not in Poſſeſſion of before. But in this Part of the World, how great and glorious are our national Acquiſitions! Inſtead of confining us to a narrow Sea-Coaſt, which the French vainly attempted ever before the War, we ſee that powerful Nation not only diſpoſſeſſed of their Encroachments, but of the very Country from whence they encroached: A Country of immenſe Extent, and which, in our Poſſeſſion, not only gives effectual Security to theſe Colonies, but muſt in a ſhort Time occaſion a vaſt Increaſe of the Commerce and Power of the Britiſh Empire. The ſteady Conduct of this Province during the Courſe of the War, and its conſtant Readineſs in complying cheartfully, according to its Abilities, with every Requiſition of the Crown, for promoting the common Service, muſt now afford you great Satisfaction in the Reflection, and will ever be remembered highly to your Honour.

Gentlemen of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY;

The Act for the Support of Government being expired, you will of Courſe take that Matter into Conſideration. In the doing of which, I flatter myſelf, that you will let the Royal Inſtruction my Predeceſſors have ſo often recommended to you on this Head, and which is entered on your Journals, have its proper Weight. And I have not the leaſt Doubt, but that you will likewiſe do therein what Juſtice ſhall appear to you to require, and what is becoming the Honour of the Province you repreſent.

As you reſide in different Parts of the Country, you have the beſt Opportunities of being acquainted with its preſent Circumſtances and Occaſions. If any new Laws, or Amendments of old Ones, appear to you to be neceſſary, you may be aſſured of my ready Concurrence in every Thing conſiſtent with my Duty to the Crown, which I can never depart from, as I am perſuaded you would not wiſh to deviate from yours; ſince you muſt be convinced, that one of the ſureſt Means of promoting the Proſperity and Happineſs of the People in any Colony, is to obtain and ſecure, by a truly dutiful Behaviour, the Favour of their Sovereign, from whom they derive Protection in the Enjoyment of their Liberties, Properties, Religion, and every Thing that is valuable.

Gentlemen of the COUNCIL, and Gentlemen of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY;

Let me recommend it to you, now the publick Tranquility is happily re-eſtabliſhed, to pay an earneſt Attention to the Arts of Peace. There are probably ſome Kinds of valuable Produce, hitherto but ſlightly, if at all, attempted, that might, with proper Encouragement, be raiſed in this Province, and tend much to the Advantage of the Inhabitants. Some Improvement might no Doubt be likewiſe made in the Navigation of Creeks and Rivers, and in the publick Roads. By turning your Thoughts to theſe Matters, it may be reaſonably expected, that many Things will occur, which, if carried into Execution, would prove greatly beneficial not only to the Province, but to the Mother Country.

The Aſſemblies of this Province have of late Years ſo diſtinguiſhed themſelves for their general Unanimity, that it ſeems unneceſſary to recommend it to them in their future Proceedings. I ſhall only obſerve, that its good Effects have been conſpicuous and evident to all, and therefore I hope it will always continue.

As to myſelf, I am fully ſenſible, it is not what is promiſed, but what is done, in any Adminiſtration, that muſt finally ſettle its Character. I ſhall not therefore begin mine among you by making great Profeſſions: But I hope, in the Courſe of it, to demonſtrate, by Actions, that I think the moſt effectual Means of approving myſelf a faithful Servant to my Royal Maſter, is to promote the true Intereſts of the Province, over which he has done me the Honour to place me, and to increaſe, by every Means in my Power, the general Welfare and Happineſs of its People.

PERTH-AMBOY, May 26, 1763.

To His EXCELLENCY
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;
Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Province of NEW-JERSEY, and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.

The humble ADDRESS of His MAJESTY's Council of the Province of NEW-JERSEY.

WE His Majeſty's Council for the Province of New-Jerſey, congratulate your Excellency on your Appointment to the Government of this Province, and on your ſafe Arrival in it.

The Knowledge your Excellency has of the People of this Province, renders it needleſs in us to give you any Aſſurances of our Hopes of your Happineſs in your Government: It is our Inclination, as well as our Duty, to render your Situation here agreeable to yourſelf, and your Adminiſtration uſeful to the Publick.

We moſt chearfully join in the general Joy on the Birth of the Prince of Wales, who we hope will inherit the Virtues, and live to enjoy the Crown, of his Anceſtors.

The Termination of a long and expenſive War, by a Peace that will ever be glorious in the Britiſh Annals, cannot but excite our ſincere Veneration for the Wiſdom of His Majeſty's Councils, as well as our utmoſt Gratitude to Divine Providence, for ſo happily reſtoring Peace and Tranquility to the whole Chriſtian World.

By Order of the Council,
ROBERT H. MORRIS.

Perth-Amboy, June 3, 1763.

To which His EXCELLENCY was pleaſed to make the following ANSWER

GENTLEMEN of the COUNCIL,

I ACCEPT with Thanks this obliging Addreſs. As I have nothing more at Heart than to ſee this Province flouriſhing and happy under my Government, it cannot but give me particular Pleaſure to find that I may expect the Aſſiſtance of Gentlemen of your diſtinguiſhed Abilities and Zeal for His Majeſty's Service.

To His EXCELLENCY
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;
Captain General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His MAJESTY's Province of NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending, in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Province in General Aſſembly convened.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

WE, His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of New-Jerſey, in General Aſſembly convened, beg Leave to congratulate your Excellency on your Appointment to, and ſafe Arrival in, this Government.

Under the Diſappointment of ſo unexpectedly and ſuddenly parting with an Adminiſtration that, in Governor HARDY, was diſintereſted, candid and benevolent; it is a Matter of great Satisfaction, to behold in your Excellency a Succeſſor, from whoſe Knowledge of our Circumſtances, and kind Approbation of our Conduct hitherto, we have reaſon to hope for a Continuation of every domeſtick and publick Happineſs, in the Power of a Governor to beſtow, conſiſtent with the Truſt repoſed in him; and no other we preſume will be looked for; nor will any Endeavours of ours be wanting, to render your Adminiſtration eaſy and happy. We acknowledge the Inſtance of Regard ſhewn to our private Affairs, in poſtponing the Meeting of the Houſe to a Time of general Convenience; and having now the Pleaſure of receiving your Excellency's Congratulations on the two important Events, the Birth of the Prince, and the Eſtabliſhment of Peace, moſt heartily join in the Joy they occaſion.

The general Advantages of the Peace are entirely to our Satisfaction, we believe, beyond Example, glorious. And when we conſider the Difficulties attending the Neighbourhood of Canada, and its Dependencies, the Terrors of their repeated Inroads and Encroachments from the Beginning; but above all, the alarming ſavage Cruelties, we find ourſelves unable to be ſufficiently thankful for the Superintendency of that Part, which being ſo near us, falls more immediately within our own Obſervation, and are at a Loſs which, under Providence, moſt to admire; the Wiſdom that planned, the Power that executed, or Firmneſs that retained a Conqueſt of ſuch immenſe national Value, and which to us on the Continent alſo ſmooths the Hardſhips of a Country in a great Part Wilderneſs, and amidſt the Struggles of heavy Debts, and a new Settlement, gives the cheering Hope of future Tranquility. Ages to come will rejoice in the happy Event; and we truſt the Recompence to our Mother Country will prove unfailing Returns of Wealth and Gratitude, in a Manner not now eaſily foreſeen.

Conſidering the preſent Expence of living, we have augmented the Support of Government.

Such new Laws as were immediately wanted, have now been gone into; others, no Doubt, for the Improvement of Roads, Creeks and Rivers, and the Promotion of the Commerce, may be wanted, and at proper Times will not fail to engage our Attention; and we thank your Excellency for mentioning them to us, and the Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give us concerning them.

To which His EXCELLENCY was pleaſed to give the following ANSWER.

Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

IT affords me great Pleaſure to find that His Majeſty's Appointment of me to this Government is ſo much to your Satisfaction.

I return you many Thanks for your kind Congratulations; and do aſſure you, that whatever you have granted for the Support of Government ſhall, ſo far as relates to myſelf, be made uſe of for the Honor and Credit of the Province.

At a Convention of the CLERGY of the Church of England, at Perth-Amboy, in New-Jerſey, the 31ſt of May, the following Addreſs was preſented, viz.

To His EXCELLENCY
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;
Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His MAJESTY's Province of NEW-JERSEY, and Territories thereon depending, in America, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the ſame.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

WE the Clergy of the Church of England, in the Province of New-Jerſey, beg Leave to take this firſt Opportunity, which our diſperſed Situation has admitted of, to preſent to your Excellency our very ſincere Congratulations on your Appointment to the Government of this Province, and on you and your Lady's ſafe Arrival amongſt us.

As the Church of England has always diſtinguiſhed itſelf by its Loyalty and Obedience to the civil Authority, we truſt it will at all Times be deemed worthy, in this Province, of the Eſteem and Protection of His Majeſty's Governors. This we have had the Happineſs to experience under ſeveral of your Excellency's Predeceſſors, and hope to enjoy under the Adminiſtration of a Gentleman, whoſe Qualifications and Accompliſhments for Government have been repreſented to us in ſo amiable a Light.

We therefore beg Leave to recommend the Church of England in this Province to your Excellency's Patronage, and to aſſure you that we will contribute, as far as our Influence extends, to render your Adminiſtration agreeable and happy.

Signed by Order of the Clergy,
SAMUEL COOKE.

To which His EXCELLENCY was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

SO very obliging an Addreſs from Gentlemen of your reſpectable Characters, merits my moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks.

It is with Truth I can aſſure you, that were it not my Duty, it would nevertheleſs be my Inclination, not only to patronize and protect the Church of England in this Province, but to afford the Clergy of it every Aſſiſtance in my Power.

By the MARY and ELISABETH, Captain HARDIE, in a ſhort Paſſage from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.
WHITEHALL, April 16, 1763.

ON Thurſday night, Lieutenant Colonel Scott arrived with the following letter to the Earl of Egremont from Brigadier-General Draper, who alſo arrived himſelf about the ſame time.

My LORD, Manilla, Nov. 2, 1762.

I DO myſelf the honour of ſending Lieutenant Colonel Scott, late Adjutant-General, to inform your Lordſhip of the ſucceſs of his Majeſty's arms in the conqueſt of Manilla, the ſurrender of the port of Cavite, and the ceſſion of the Philippine Iſlands.

On the 6th of October we took the capital by ſtorm, after 12 days operation, which are detailed in my journal. Our loſs upon this occaſion would have been trifling, but for the death of Major Moore, a valiant good officer; and it is with particular ſatisfaction I can aſſure your Lordſhip, that the firm bravery and perſeverance of the troops could only be equalled by their humanity after victory. Out of reſpect and deference to Admiral Corniſh, we waited till he came on ſhore, and being deſirous to ſave ſo fine a city from deſtruction, we jointly dictated the annexed conditions to the Governor General (the Archbiſhop) and the chief Magiſtrates, who moſt readily embraced them.

Conſidering their critical ſituation, and vaſt opulence, the terms were as reaſonable for them as beneficial to us. We allow the India Company a third part of the ranſom, the whole of which amounts to a million ſterling; and, according to my inſtructions, I have this day delivered up Manilla, one of the richeſt cities and iſlands in this part of the world, with the port of Cavite, to Dawſon Drake, Eſq; and the other Gentlemen appointed to receive them on behalf of the Company, with all the artillery, ammunition, and warlike ſtores found therein, agreeable to the incloſed inventories.

I have appointed Major Fell of the 79th regiment to be Commandant of the garriſon, which muſt conſiſt of all the troops brought from Madraſs, as the great extent of the place, its very numerous inhabitants, an unſettled country, with the importance of the Cavite, demand at leaſt this force for an effectual ſecurity.

The ſeaſon of the year, and condition of the ſquadron, obliged us to defer the taking poſſeſſion of the ſubordinate places ceded to the crown, until the ſhips have had a ſufficient repair; and I have the pleaſure to acquaint your Lordſhip, that the large quantity of naval ſtores taken in the royal magazines at Cavite, ſupply moſt excellent materials for this purpoſe, in which the Admiral is indefatigable, whoſe zeal for his Majeſty's ſervice, great cordiality, and conſtant attention to us during the whole courſe of the expedition, and fatiguing progreſs of the ſiege, are beyond all praiſe. The other officers of the fleet exerted themſelves to the utmoſt upon every occaſion. As a ſmall acknowledgment of our many obligations to Mr. Kemperfeldt, the Admiral's Captain, I begged his acceptance of the Government of the citadel and port of Cavite, till it was given up to the Company; his prudent and excellent regulations there, were of infinite utility to the publick ſervice.

The Captains Collins, Pitchford, and George Ourry, who commanded the battalion of ſeamen, behaved with great ſpirit and conduct, and Captain Jocelyn, who was intruſted with the care of the diſembarkations, gave us all the aſſiſtance that could be wiſhed or expected from a diligent good officer. The marine officers and corps were of great ſervice, and the ſeamen aſtoniſhed us with moſt extraordinary proofs of activity and valour, particularly thoſe who aſſiſted at our batteries.

The reduction of Manilla has been ſo much owing to the conſummate ſkill and bravery of Colonel Monſon, that I fear my faint repreſentations cannot do juſtice to his merits; and I moſt humbly beg leave, through your Lordſhip, to recommend him to his Majeſty, together with the following officers, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Scott, Major Barker, who commanded our artillery; Captain Fletcher, Major of Brigade; the Engineers, Captains Stevenſon and Cotsford, and Enſign Barnard; the Captains Moore and Pemble, Aids de Camp, who have all acted in their ſeveral departments with extraordinary merit, and greatly facilitated my good fortune. Both the Royal and the Company's artillery, with their other troops, behaved very well. In the laſt place, may I preſume to point out the ſervices of the 79th regiment, which, from the good conduct of their former and preſent Field-Officers, has the peculiar merit of having firſt ſtopped the progreſs of the French in India, and not a little contributed to the happy turn and deciſion of that war under Colonel Coote, and has ſince extended the glory of his Majeſty's arms to the utmoſt verge of Aſia. Twenty-three officers, with upwards of 800 men, have fallen, in the cauſe of their country, ſince the regiment left England: Numbers of the ſurvivors are wounded. Your Lordſhip's goodneſs encourages me to mention them as objects of compaſſion and protection. Captain Fletcher has nine colours to lay at his Majeſty's feet.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WILLIAM DRAPER,
Brigadier-General, and Commander in Chief.

PROPOSALS made to their Excellencies his Britannick Majeſty's Commanders in Chief by Sea and Land, by his Excellency the Archbiſhop, Captain General of the Philippine Iſlands, the Royal Audience, the City and Commerce of Manilla.

ART. I. That their effects and poſſeſſions ſhall be ſecured to them, under the protection of his Britannick Majeſty, with the ſame liberty they have heretofore enjoyed. Granted.

ART. II. That the Catholick, Apoſtolick and Roman Religion, be preſerved and maintained in its free exerciſe and functions, by its Paſtors and faithful Miniſters. Granted.

ART. III. That the families, which are retired into the country, may have free liberty to return unmoleſted. Granted.

ART. IV. That the ſame indemnification and liberty may extend to perſons of both ſexes, inhabitants of this city, without any prejudice or moleſtation to their interior commerce. "They may carry on all ſorts of commerce as Britiſh ſubjects."

ART. V. Having great confidence in the manners and politeneſs of their Excellencies the Britiſh Generals, hope they will uſe their beſt endeavours in preſerving peace and quietneſs in the city and ſuburbs, chaſtiſing all people, who, ſhall dare to oppoſe their ſuperior orders. Granted.

ART. VI. That the inhabitants of this city may enjoy the ſame liberty of commerce as they have had heretofore, and that they may have proper paſſports granted them for that end. "Anſwered by the fourth Article."

ART. VII. That the ſame liberty may be granted to the natives of the country, for bringing in all manner of proviſions, according to their uſual method, without the leaſt oppoſition or extortion, paying for them in the ſame manner as hath been heretofore practiſed. "Granted; but any perſon coming in with any fire-arms, or offenſive weapons, will be put to death."

ART. VIII. That the Eccleſiaſtical Government may be tolerated, and have free liberty to inſtruct the faithful, eſpecially the native inhabitants. "They muſt not attempt to convert any of our Royal Maſter's Proteſtant ſubjects to the Popiſh Faith."

ART. IX. That the uſe and exerciſe of the Oeconomical Government of the city may remain in its ſame freedom and liberty. Granted.

ART. X. That the authority, as well political as civil, may ſtill remain in the hands of the Royal Audience, to the end that, by their means, a ſtop may be put to all diſorders, and the inſolent and guilty be chaſtiſed. "To be ſubject to the ſuperior controul of our Government."

ART. XI. That the ſaid Miniſters and Royal officers, their perſons and goods, be in full ſecurity, be maintained in their honours, with a ſtipend ſufficient for their ſupport, his Catholick Majeſty being anſwerable for the ſame; upon theſe conditions the above-mentioned Miniſters will be under the protection of his Britannick Majeſty, in the ſame manner as the reſt of the inhabitants. "His Catholick Majeſty muſt pay for their ſupport."

ART. XII. That the inhabitants may have free liberty to reſide within, or out of the city, as ſhall be moſt convenient for them. "Still to be ſubject to the revocation of our Government, if they find it neceſſary."

Done at the head-quarters in the city of Manilla, this ſixth day of October, 1762.

CONDITIONS on which the City of Manilla ſhall be preſerved from Plunder, and the Inhabitants maintained in their Religion, Goods, Liberties, and Properties, under the Government and Protection of his Britannick Majeſty.

ART. I. The Spaniſh officers of every rank ſhall be eſteemed as priſoners of war, upon their parole of honour, but ſhall have the liberty of wearing their ſwords. The reſt of the troops, of every degree and quality, muſt be diſarmed, and diſpoſed of as we ſhall think proper. They ſhall be treated with humanity.

ARR. II. All the military ſtores and magazines, of every kind, muſt be ſurrendered faithfully, to our Commiſſaries, and nothing ſecreted, or damaged.

ART. III. His Excellency the Governor muſt ſend immediate orders to the fort of Cavite, and the other forts under his command, and dependant upon Manilla, to ſurrender to his Britannick Majeſty.

ART. IV. The propoſitions, contained in the paper delivered on the part of his Excellency the Governor and his Council, will be liſtened to and confirmed to them, upon their payment of four millions of dollars; the half to be paid immediately; the other half to be paid in a time to be agreed upon; and hoſtages and ſecurity given for that purpoſe.

Done in the city of Manilla, the 6th day of October, 1762.

(Signed as the above Propoſals.)

All the Iſlands (ſubordinate to Luconia, and Manilla its capital, and which are at preſent under the dominion of his Catholick Majeſty) muſt be ceded to his Britannick Majeſty, who muſt be acknowledged Sovereign till the fate of theſe Iſlands is decided by a peace between the two Kings. Their religion, goods, liberties, properties, and commerce, ſhall be preſerved to the inhabitants of thoſe Iſlands, who are ſubjects of Spain, in as ample a manner as they are confirmed to the inhabitants of Manilla, and the Iſland of Luconia. All the Governors and military ſhall be allowed the honours of war, but give their parole, as the officers have done at Manilla and Cavite, not to ſerve or take up arms againſt his Britannick Majeſty.

Dated at Manilla, October 30, 1762.

LONDON, March 29.

March 31. Yeſterday in the afternoon the bill for laying an exciſe on cyder and perry paſſed the Houſe of Lords; immediately after which, the City Remembrancer, with the Sheriffs, who attended the iſſue, went to St. James's, and preſented the City's petition againſt the bill to his Majeſty, who received it very graciouſly.

They are hard at work in reſtoring their marine both at Breſt and Toulon. In the latter port, four ſhips (an 80 gun, two 74's, and a 64) will be ready to launch in a fortnight; and another of 74 guns is in great forwardneſs.

April 2. By letters from Breſt of the 10th ult. we have advice, that the Tonant man of war of 80 guns, commanded by the Count de Caumont, and having part of the garriſon of Minorca on board, met with a violent ſtorm on the coaſt of Spain on the 20th and 21ſt of Feb. in which ſhe loſt ſeveral of the troops, as well as ſeamen, and was ſo much damaged, as it is thought will render her entirely unfit for ſervice.

We hear that 26,000 tons of ſhipping have been lately contracted for, by order of the Government, to fetch away the garriſons, ſettlers, merchants, and their reſpective effects, from Martinico, Guadaloupe, and the Havannah.

April 9. On Thurſday the Earl of Bute reſigned his place of Firſt Lord of the Treaſury; as did Sir Francis Daſhwood his place of Chancellor of the Exchequer.

It is ſaid that the Right Hon. George Grenville is to hold both the above places.

That the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend will ſucceed Mr. Grenville as Firſt Lord of the Admiralty.

And that the Earl of Shelburne is to be Firſt Lord of Trade, in the room of Mr. Townſhend.

The Duke of Malborough will be appointed Maſter of the Horſe, in the room of the Duke of Rutland.

Sir Francis Daſhwood, the Right Hon. Henry Fox, and Norborne Berkly, Eſq; it is ſaid, are to be created Peers.

April 11. The King of Pruſſia has made Mr. Mitchell, the Britiſh Miniſter, a Preſent of a Gold Snuff Box, with his Picture ſet round with Diamonds.

Aprill 12. We are informed that the Earl of Bute intends to retire from all public buſineſs.

We hear that Sir Francis Daſhwood is to be a Peer, and Maſter of the Great Wardrobe, in the room of

Earl Gower, Privy-Seal in the room of

The Duke of Bedford, Preſident of the Council. And James Oſwald, Eſq; Vice-Treaſurer of Ireland, in the room of Lord Sandwich, who goes Ambaſſador to Spain.

The Dukes of Rutland and Marlborough have both kiſſed hands upon an exchange of places.

Thomas Orby Hunter, Eſq; and J. Harris Eſq; are both made Lords of the Treaſury; but who are to fill up their places in the Admiralty is not yet known.

-------- Jenkinſon, Eſq; Secretary to Lord Bute, is appointed one of the Secretaries of the Treaſury, in the room of Samuel Martin, Eſq.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford his Ambaſſador to the Court of France, in the room of his Grace the Duke of Bedford, who is returning home.

We are credibly informed, that a noble Earl, who has juſt reſigned a great office, did not receive a fourth part of the ſalary annexed to it, giving up the reſt for the public ſervice.

Extract of a Letter from Rome, March 9.

"Yeſterday I was informed that the King of Pruſſia had ſent for the Rector of the Jeſuits at Breſlau, to whom he ſpoke in theſe ſoft terms:

'Father, the King of Portugal has driven you out of his kingdom: France hath exterminated you; this, doubtleſs, was done for powerful reaſons. For my part, I have but very few words to ſay to you; leave my dominions as ſoon as poſſible; and carry nothing away with you; otherwiſe I ſhall hang you up as thieves.'

"I have tranſlated literally this obliging ſpeech, which was delivered in high German, and has been publiſhed here in Italian. The Court has a copy of it as it was ſpoken."

Yeſterday his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Ambaſſador to France, arrived in town from Paris, and waited on his Majeſty at St. James's.

Yeſterday Sir Francis Daſhwood, Bart. now Lord Deſpenſer, kiſſed his Majeſty's hand at St. James's, on his advancement to the Peerage.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, April 13.

"The Nautila ſloop is arrived from Virginia.

"The Rainbow is put into commiſſion, and the command given to Capt. Stirling."

Private letters from Cadiz ſay, that the treaſure found by the Spaniards at the reduction of the Portugueſe colony called Novo-Colono, alias San Sacramento, amounted to about two millions of cruzades.

April 18. We hear his Grace the Duke of Bedford will reſign the Office of Lord Privy Seal, and that his Grace does not accept of any other place, as he is ſoon going to the South of France for the recovery of the Dutcheſs's health.

We hear that Lord Gower will be made Lord Privy-Seal, in the room of his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

And that Lord Deſpenſer will be made Maſter of the Great Wardrobe, in the room of Lord Gower.

Whitehall, April 16. The King has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. George Grenville, the Right Hon. Frederick North, commonly called Lord North, Sir John Turner, Bart. Thomas Orby Hunter, and James Harris, Eſquires, to be Commiſſioners for executing the office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto the Right Hon. George Grenville the office of Chancellor of his Majeſty's Exchequer; and alſo to grant unto the ſaid George Grenville the office of Under Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer.

St. James's, April 16. The King has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. James Stuart Mackenzie, Eſq; to be Keeper of his Majeſty's Privy Seal of Scotland, in the room of

James Duke of Athol, appointed Keeper of his Majeſty's Seal in Scotland, in the room of Charles Duke of Queenſberry, appointed his Majeſty's Juſtice-General in Scotland, in the room of John Marq. of Tweeddale, deceaſed.

Henry Home, Eſq; (one of the Ordinary Lords of Seſſion) to be one of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Juſticiary in Scotland, in the room of

Sir Gilbert Elliot, of Minto, Bart. (one of the Senators of the College of Juſtice) his Majeſty's Juſtice Clerk of Scotland, in the room of Charles Erſkine, Eſq; deceaſed. And

Lond. April 19. The Earl of Sandwich is appointed Firſt Lord of the Admiralty, in the room of the Right Hon. George Grenville.

It is ſaid Edward Wortly Montague, Eſq; brother to the Counteſs of Bute, will be appointed one of the Deputy Tellers of the Exchequer.

April 21. On Sunday laſt the Tweed Frigate ſailed from Plymouth, for Newfoundland, where ſhe is to be ſtationed to ſecure our own Trade, and obſerve the Behaviour of the French.

Dr. Fothergill, who has been dangerouſly ill, is now in a fair way of recovery, and is gone to his houſe at Upton, near Plaiſtow, in Eſſex.

A great perſonage, it is ſaid, has declared that the Right Hon. Charles Townſhend ſhall not have a place or penſion.

Advice is ſaid to be received from Dunkirk, that the demolition of the fortifications is begun, under the inſpection of one of our engineers.

Appointed. THOMAS GRAVES, Eſq; Governor of Newfoundland.

April 22. Letters arrived on Wedneſday from Paris bring advice, that orders have been ſent to Breſt from the Board of Admiralty, to build four men of war, two of 64 Guns, and two of 90 Guns.

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, May 28.

Letters by Captain Craig from Havannah, ſay, that the King's troops were preparing to leave that place by the 10th of June; would be embarked in three diviſions; and landed at St. Auguſtine, Penſacola, and Mobile.

NEW-PORT, June 6.

The Brig Royal Charlotte, Captain Taylor, arrived here laſt Thurſday from Annamaboa, on the Coaſt of Africa, after a Paſſage of 110 Days; by whom we have the affecting Intelligence of the tragical Death of Capt. George Froſt, and Mr. William Grant, his Mate, both of this Town, which was perpetrated by the Slaves on board his Sloop, as ſhe lay at Anchor in the River Gaboone, in the Month of November laſt. Capt. Froſt having Occaſion either for ſome Wood or Water, ſent two of his Men, and a Negroe on Shore for that Purpoſe, himſelf, the Mate, and a Negroe, who belonged to the Veſſel, remaining on board; and in the Mens Abſence he unfortunately permitted the Slaves, to the Number of about 60, to come upon Deck, who immediately ſeized him, with the Negroe Man, and threw them overboard. Mr. Grant at this Time lay ſick in his Cabin, unable to riſe. Capt. Froſt ſwam up to the Veſſel, in order to get on board again; upon which the Slaves threw a Lance at him, which penetrated his Body, where it remained, and with which he attempted to gain the Shore, but after ſwimming about Half the Way, he ſunk, and was ſeen no more. The Negroe, who was thrown over with him, had the good Fortune to get ſafe aſhore.

The Slaves having now the Command of the Veſſel, they brought the Small Arms, with ſeveral barrels of Powder, upon Deck; and on ſome Blacks coming off in Canoes to retake the Veſſel, the Slaves on board began firing with their Small Arms, but through Ignorance ſoon ſet the Powder on Fire, and in the Exploſion about 30 of them were deſtroyed. The Sloop was retaken three Days afterwards, when the moſt affecting Part of this Affair was diſcloſed; for on entering the Cabin, the Corps of Mr. Grant was immediately diſcovered, with his Throat cut in a very ſhocking Manner, which was ſuppoſed to have been done as ſoon as Captain Froſt and the Negroe were thrown over.

A ſhort Time before Capt. Taylor ſailed, he heard that the Slaves on board a Sloop belonging to Liverpool, roſe upon the People, wounded the Mate, and got Poſſeſſion of the Veſſel, which afterwards ran aſhore, and beat to Pieces.

NEW-YORK, June 9.

On Tueſday laſt a Girl in this City, about 15 Years of Age, poiſoned herſelf with Ratſbane, which ſhe bought under a Pretence of poiſoning Rats. The Coroner's Inqueſt brought in their Verdict, Self Murder. The Cauſe of this raſh Action is not known.

Apothecaries are deſired to be extraordinarily careful not to diſpoſe of any Poiſons but to Perſons of known Diſcretion.

The Companies of the Light Infantry of the 17th, 42d and 77th Regiments, are ordered to aſſemble on Staten Iſland, to be in Readineſs to proceed againſt the Savages, ſhould it appear that any thing general is intended againſt the Settlements.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.

Extract of a Letter from FORT PITT, June 2, 1763.

"Thurſday laſt, juſt oppoſite the Fort, at Duſk, arrived a Number of Delaware Indians, with 15 Horſe Load of Skins and Furs. Very early next Morning they came over the River, and dealt them all off, not ſeeming to care much what they took for them. Their Indifference, and uncommon Diſpatch, in Trading, gave us ſome Jealouſies how they came by them. Juſt before they ſet off, I was ſtanding with Mr. Alexander M'Kee, on the Bank of the River, when one of them came up and told him to go away, and that he muſt not ſtay more than four Days; theſe, with ſome other ſuſpicious Words, made us imagine they intended ſome Miſchief; and immediately after they told Mr. M'Kee this, they ſet off---The next Morning we found, that all the Indians that lay up the River, a few Miles above us, and planted Corn, left their Towns that very Night, and took every Thing with them, which convinced us that they either intended, or knew of ſome Miſchief intended us---Sunday Morning ſome People, belonging to Colonel Clapham, arrived at the Fort, and informed us that the Colonel, and four of his People were killed by the Wolf, and ſome other Delawares; and ſince the Colonel was brought down and buried here, who was tomahawked and ſcalped; two Women were treated in ſuch a Manner, that it would be indecent to mention it. Sunday Night the Enemy killed two of the Soldiers at the Saw Mill, and on Thurſday burnt it---Monday, a Man hired with Aliſon and Company, came to a Party ſent down to bury the Dead, and informed, that he was in Company with Alexander M'Clure, driving 25 Horſe Load of Skins and Furs, belonging to ſaid Company, Thomas Calhoon and Brother, and ſeveral others, amounting in all to fourteen, who were fired upon by a Party of Indians, as they were croſſing Beaver Creek, and ſeveral killed---Calhoon, and two of his Men, have arrived ſince, but no Account of the reſt---The whole Garriſon have been very alert in putting every Thing in the beſt Order ſince the firſt Alarm---We have deſtroyed the Upper and Lower Towns, laying them level with the Ground; and by To-morrow Night we ſhall be in a good Poſture of Defence---Every Morning, an Hour before Day, the whole Garriſon are at their Alarm Poſts---Ten Days ago, at Beaver Creek, they killed one Patrick Dunn, and a Man of Major Smallman's; alſo two other Men---Captain Callender's People are all killed, and the Goods taken---There is no Account of Mr. Welſh, or Captain Prentice, but it is feared they are likewiſe killed---Mr. Crawford is made Priſoner, and his People all murdered---Our ſmall Poſts, I am afraid, are gone---Detroit was attacked four Days without Intermiſſion---The French ſent the Indians two Belts, and the Engliſh three, to deſiſt, but they determined to continue the Attack, and were fighting when the Indian, who brought this Account to the Delawares, came away---We ſent two Men with an Expreſs to Venango in the Night, but before they got a Mile on their Journey, were fired upon, and returned, one of them wounded."

From FORT BEDFORD we have the following Extracts, viz.

June 5, 1763. "As the News current muſt have reached you, with various Circumſtances, e'er now, the following is the moſt authentic that I can as yet depend on, viz. That Col. Clapham, one M'Cormick, two Women, and a Child, were murdered on Saturday, the 28th ult.---That a few Days after two Royal Americans were killed and ſcalped, within a Mile of Fort Pitt---And that on Tueſday laſt one Smith was attacked by an Indian, without Arms, at Beaver Creek, who endeavoured to put him under Water; but Smith proving too ſtrong for him, put the Indian under Water, brought off a Piece of his Ear, and left him."

"At this Garriſon Captain Ourry is very alert, in ſtrengthening the Place, and putting in Order every the leaſt Article that may be neceſſary---The Fort is tenable, and the Garriſon ſtrong; a Number of People having come in from the Country---We have a numerous Militia, who are under Arms almoſt continually---Regular Piquets, Town Guards, Fort Guards, Centinels, &c. are obſerved---Thirteen brave Men, well painted, go out a ſcouting To-morrow."

June 6. "After ſealing the above, I opened it this Morning, to inform you, that the thirteen brave Fellows, above mentioned, painted like Indians, have ſet off from our Parade, in Queſt of the Savages, to the great Satisfaction of the Commander, and the whole Garriſon---Juſt as I am writing, News is brought in of Indians being ſeen within two Miles of the Garriſon, when immediately the Piquet, conſiſting of the Militia, ſprung after them on a full Gallop."

June 7. "We have juſt now received, by the Way of Redſtone Creek, a Confirmation of the Garriſon of St. Duſky being cut off; and that the Officer and Traders are made Priſoners."

From FORT LIGONIER, June 4.

"On Thurſday laſt, about ſeven or eight Indians fired at that Garriſon, and killed ſome Horſes, without doing any other Damage.---They were intimidated by Lieutenant Blane, and his Garrison, who gave them three Cheers, and they went off.---- Some People are come into Ligonier from Fort Pitt, in whose Company were five Men, who set out with them, but had not come in the Fourth Inſtant, tho' the others arrived on the Firſt."

There are likewiſe ſeveral Letters in Town from Fort Auguſta, by which there is Reaſon to fear an Attack on that Place by the Indians.

A GENERAL Meeting of the Ohio Company is desired at Stafford Court house, on Potomack Creek, in Virginia, the first Monday in July next. The general Assembly of Virginia being unexpectedly called, will prevent the Committee of the Ohio Company from meeting on the first Monday in June, as was formerly advertised; and as there are Matters of the greatest Importance to the Company to be settled at their next Meeting, this Notice is ordered to be published in the Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania Gazettes, that the several Members may be informed of it. By Order of the Committee of the Ohio Company. 8

THE Ohio Company have ordered 100 Half Acre Lots to be laid off, for a Town, to be called CHARLOTTESBURG, on Potomack River, in the Province of Maryland, near Fort Cumberland, and an equal Number of out Lots, contiguous to the Town, will be annexed to them. Within three Years from the Date of their Deeds, each Proprietor is to build on his Town Lot a Dwelling-house 20 by 15, with a Brick or Stone Chimney, and is to pay an annual Ground-rent of Five Shillings Sterling for each Town Lot. These Lots will be sold on the Premises to the highest Bidders, on Monday the 20th Day of June next; and as the Public may be assured none will be disposed of at private Sale, those who will attend may have an Opportunity of choosing such Lots as they think most convenient.

Any one who will consult the Maps must see that Fort Cumberland, from its natural Situation and Contiguity to that very extensive and fertile Country on the Ohio and its Waters, must be the Key to all that valuable Settlement; it being the highest and most convenient Landing-place for the Inhabitants on the other Side the Allegheny Mountains, on all the River Potowmack, which affords a Water Carriage that, with very inconsiderable Expence, might be rendered safe, certain and easy, at all Seasons of the Year, from the great Falls to the Spot now proposed for a Town. It is about 75 Miles Land Carriage to the Monongahela, which is navigable to the Ohio for Flat-bottomed Boats or Battoes; and not more than 65 Miles to the Yauyaugaine, where the Road, as it is at present cleared to Pittsburgh, crosses; to which Place the Indians frequently, before the War, brought up their Battoes loaded with Skins: And all who are acquainted with the Country agree, that a very good Waggon Road may be made to that very Spot, or even a few Miles lower down the River, which would reduce the Distance from thence to Fort Cumberland at least 15 Miles. The Land Carriage from Pimmitt's Warehouse, at the Little Falls, which is the highest Tide Water of Potowmack, to the Great Falls, does not exceed 12 Miles; and the Manufactures of Great Britain may be transported by the Potowmack to the Ohio, and its Produce or Furs remitted through the same Channel, only with 90 Miles Land Carriage at the most. And to all the Advantages of Situation, &c. already enumerated may be added, not as the most inconsiderable, that the Ohio Company have a Right to expect a Magazine (with a sufficient Garrison) will be established at Fort Cumberland for supplying the Troops which may be employed on the Ohio.

Fort Cumberland is about 115 Miles from Pittsburgh, 30 from Fort Bedford, 60 from Winchester, Land Carriage, good Waggon Roads, and 100 Miles Water Carriage from the Mouth of Conecocheague Creek, in Maryland.

The Day the Lots are sold, the Ohio Company will lett to the highest Bidder, for a Term of Years, two very good Store Houses on Potowmack River, in Virginia, opposite to Fort Cumberland, one 45 by 25, with a Counting-room, and Lodging-room, with Fire Places at one End, the other 44 by 20, with proper Conveniencies for a Family, two Stories high each, besides Garrets, with good dry Cellars fit for storing Skins, the whole Size of the Houses, and a Kitchen, Stable for 12 Horses, Meat Houses, and Dairy; there are two good Battoes, which will be given to the Person who rents the Houses. The whole intirely new, and now fit to enter upon, and the Grist and Saw-mills, which are not a Mile from the Town, will be compleated by the Middle of June; there is Plenty of fine Timber and Limestone very convenient. The Company have a great Quantity of exceeding good Land on both Sides Potowmack River, contiguous to the Town and Store Houses, to lett. Any Person desirous to treat for the Store Houses or Lands before the Day of Sale for the Town Lots, may know the Terms, by applying to the Subscriber, who will attend at Fort Cumberland, on the 20th Day of June before mentioned, to make the Purchasers Titles to their Lots. 8 2 W. GEORGE MERCER.

To be SOLD,

Philadelphia, June 18, 1763.

To the PUBLIC.

WHEREAS ſeveral Reports have of late been ſpread about, as well in this City, as every where in the Country, concerning the German Reformed Church, Mr. Frederick Rothenbuhler, and the preſent Elders and Deacons of the ſame; it is thought fit to inſert, in the public Gazette, the Reſolves of the German Reformed Cætus in Pennſylvania concerning this Affair; to the End that the Matter now in Queſtion may appear in its true Light, and every impartial Reader be enabled to form a proper Judgment thereon, which we hope may contribute to the public Good, and to the Preſervation of Truth and Peace.

And foraſmuch as Suit has been brought againſt the ſaid Cætus, the further Declarations which the ſame Cætus ſhall make, may hereafter be communicated to the Public.

In the Name of GOD.

DEEPLY concerned as we are, about the Troubles and Diſturbances ſubſiſting in a Church that has been eſtabliſhed for the conquering and bringing up the Souls of Men to the great Shepherd JESUS, we cannot but give you an Anſwer to your unanimous Requeſt, hereby expreſſing to you our hearty Condolance, and the Reſult of our Deliberations, upon the Occaſion.

Firſt, That in the Inſtrument of Call it is plainly expreſſed, that the preſent Elders are acknowledged to be the lawful Elders, and that the ſame Inſtrument has been held to be valid by the Members of the Congregation. That the Members of the Congregation having, by the ſame Inſtrument of Call, inveſted the Elders with the whole Power of introducing and diſmiſſing the Miniſter; and the Miniſter, Mr. Rothenbuhler, having on his Part ſigned the ſame Inſtrument of Call, as a lawful Inſtrument, and accepted thereof, it is evident, and without Contradiction, that the Reſolves of the Elders cannot be reverſed, neither by Mr. Rothenbuhler, nor by the Members of the Congregation; conſequently, that the Inſtrument of his Diſmiſſion is valid, and doth not admit of any Exception.

Secondly, The ſaid Elders having, in open Church, ſignified to the Congregation their Deſire of having a Conference with them, upon ſome Matters concerning Mr. Rothenbuhler, and on the then next following Day 60 or 70 Men, Members of the ſaid Congregation, appearing; and Mr. Rothenbuhler, in the Preſence of them, did behave himſelf ſo indecently, that they declared him to be unworthy of their Pulpit and Church; it is evident, that the reſt of the Members either would reſt ſatisfied with the Determination of the others, or that they did not care to trouble themſelves about the Church or the Church Miniſter: So that thoſe Perſons who did appear are to be conſidered as the Pillars of the Church, upon which this Edifice is to reſt; and the others have no Right to lay Claim to the Church, or to make Diſturbances in the ſame, but are now to be conſidered as coming too late for Deliberation; and being blinded by rebellious Principles, in theſe preſent Diſturbances, are become themſelves the Diſturbers, and the Diſturbed, who in this Reſpect are intitled to our Compaſſion, and in our brotherly Love are forewarned to avoid greater Detriment, if they do perſiſt in their Reſolutions.

Thirdly, Whereas Mr. Rothenbuhler, with thoſe of the Congregation who intend to retain him as their Miniſter, have deſired of us to be received in our Cætus; we do hereby declare this to be our Reſolution, that as Mr. Rothenbuhler, by his Conduct, as well in Europe as at New-York, has deſerved Cenſure and Reproof, for which Reaſon he has no Teſtimonies to produce from the reverend Synods, or from the reverend Claſſis of Amſterdam; and at New-York has been diſabled to hold an Office in the Church; and has of late, towards the Congregation of Philadelphia, and towards the Brethren of the reverend Cætus in general, and to ſome of them in particular, behaved in a Manner contrary to all the Rules of Decency, it would be a great Reproach for us to receive ſuch Brethren, who are a Detriment and Diſgrace as well to the Church as to us. Moreover, Mr. Stapel and Mr. Alſentz have been warned by the Deputies of the reverend Claſſis of Amſterdam, not to be in Communion with him; and therefore, as deſirous as we are to ſee faithful Labourers in our Pennſylvania Vineyard, and to be in brotherly Union with Numbers of People, in order to bring the Harveſt of the Lord to its Perfection, we cannot comply with the Requeſt of Mr. Rothenbuhler, and his Adherents.

We do wiſh our Saviour JESUS may heal the Breaches of Zion, and the Decay of the Church, by the Miniſtry of an upright-hearted Man, agreeable to the Heart of the Lord; (ſo as, at your Deſire, we ſhall endeavour to ſend you one, and in the mean While we will provide the Church, by the Service of our Brethren) and that the Lord may be pleaſed, by his Grace and Spirit, to prepare Paſtors and Teachers, that his Church, being planted in Faith, may bring forth the Fruits thereof, and adorned with the ſame, may appear in Plenty and Glory, without Blemiſh, to his Praiſe. The GOD of Peace be with you. Amen.

Done at our Meeting in Germantown, May the 6th, 1763, and ſealed with the Seal of our Cætus.

VIENNA, March 12.

THE war, which has coſt five hundred millions of florins, and half a million of men, being happily at an end, the Empreſs Queen turns her thoughts towards making her ſubjects ſenſible of the bleſſings of peace, and accordingly has iſſued an edict, ſetting forth, that in order to prevent thoſe diſorders which uſually enſue immediately after the concluſion of a peace, by the great number of perſons that are thrown out of employ, her Imperial Majeſty propoſes to procure a ſettlement for all thoſe that ſhall be diſcharged from her armies, by ſending them into the Bannat of Temeſwar, Hungary and Tranſylvania: Thoſe of the Reformed religion are to be admitted into the two laſt-mentioned countries, with free liberty to exerciſe their religion. The horſes belonging to the artillery that are to be diſcharged, will be diſtributed among the inhabitants of Bohemia, to indemnify them for the numbers of horſes which they loſt by the war.

Berlin, March 15. The King has publiſhed a general amneſty, in favour not only of deſerters, but of thoſe young fellows who left their native country for fear of being inliſted, provided they return in three months.

Paris, March 21. Several ſchemes are under conſideration for the regulation of the marine, and the reſtoration of our finances; and the authors of thoſe ſchemes which ſhall be thought worthy of being put in execution, will be well rewarded.

Every thing is ſettled between this Court and that of London, relating to the expence of their reſpective priſoners of war.

Genoa, March 5. A large ſum of money is juſt drawn out of the Bank of St. George, to ſupport the expence of the Corſican war.

Francfort, March 20. The contingent of troops which this city ſent to the army of the Empire, is juſt returned, and does not amount to 120 men.

Hague, March 25. The French have actually evacuated the Pruſſian dominions, which are again in the power of their Sovereign; and the regular troops, which are to garriſon the towns, are in full march for the Lower Rhine.

Hague, March 29. They write from France, that the King has made ſo large a reduction in his forces, that the taxes of that Kingdom will ſoon be conſiderably reduced; and that the officers of the Police have already obliged the merchants and tradeſmen to lower the price of all ſorts of commodities, of that country, in ſuch a manner, that the poor will immediately partake of the fruits of the peace lately concluded with Great-Britain.

Ancona, March 15. In a dreadful ſtorm in the Adriatic on the 12th and 13th inſtant, among ſeveral other veſſels that periſhed, was the St. Ignatius, a Venetian ſhip of war of 80 guns, which was returning to Venice to be laid up; and of her numerous crew only thirty ſeamen and ſoldiers were ſaved.

Glatz, March 8. The King of Pruſſia has granted a general pardon to all his ſubjects who have been either diſgraced or exiled. Baron Warkotſch, who formed a plot to deliver him up to the Empreſs Queen, alone excepted. The Biſhop of Breſlau has had his eſtate and effects reſtored; but is not yet permitted to return to Breſlau: His Majeſty has aſſigned him for his reſidence the town of Otmachau on the Neiſs.

Vienna, March 23. The two ſeparate articles of the treaty of peace between our Court and that of Berlin are not yet publiſhed. It is not however doubted but that, by one, the King of Pruſſia engages to give his vote for the Archduke Joſeph at the election of a King of the Romans; and we are told that, by the other, it is ſtipulated, that in caſe one of the Archdukes marries the daughter of the Hereditary Prince of Modena, and our Court ſhould demand of the Germannic Body the reverſion, in favour of the Archduke, for the ſucceſſion to that dutchy, conſidered as a fief of the Empire, the King of Pruſſia will give his conſent the eto.

Franconia, March 24. We learn with great ſatisfaction, that the difference between the Princes of Cobourg, Gotha, and Hildbourghauſen, on one ſide, and the Princeſs Dowager of Saxe-Meinunguen, is entirely accommodated. That Princeſs is declared and acknowledged Guardian to her eldeſt ſon, and Regent of the country of Meinunguen; the children by the firſt marriage of the late Duke being entirely excluded from the ſucceſſion.

Warſaw, March 7. The convocation of an extraordinary Diet, propoſed by the majority of Senators, for ſupporting Prince Charles in the poſſeſſion of Courland, is looked upon by many perſons as an expedient very improper to obtain the end; for beſides the room there is to fear that it will break up fruitleſly, the Duke de Biren will have the longer time to ſtrengthen his party. The remark made in the Senatus-Conſilium by the Waywode of Innowraclow is pretty ſingular: "In caſe, ſays he, the two Dukes were to appear before the throne, and produce each his diploma ſigned by the King's hand, and furniſhed with the two ſeals of the kingdom, I ſhould not know how to decide the diſpute."

The Palatine of Rawa has ſummoned all the Nobleſſe of his Palatinate to appear under arms in the field, near Socharzew, where they are to be reviewed in June next.

Genoa, March 12. Two hundred Corſicans, who favoured the raiſing of two regiments for our ſervice at Corte, have been put in irons by the partiſans of the rebel Paoli.

Paris, April 6. The Palais Royale belonging to the Duke of Orleans is now burning. The fire began about 11 o'clock, and ſtill rages at three. It began at the Opera houſe, which is burnt to the ground, as well as the wing of the palace adjoining to it. They are removing the pictures as faſt as poſſible, but it is feared they will be much damaged in the hurry and confuſion.

Thuringia, March 29. This province bears quite a different face; the inhabitants who had fled are returned; trade revives, and almoſt all the traces of the late war are effaced.

Berlin, March 29. The inhabitants vie with one another in contriving ingenious devices for the illumination of their houſes upon his Majeſty's entrance into this city; which may juſtly be called a triumphal entry. In order to form a juſt idea of his Majeſty's glory, people have only to conſider in the firſt place the formidable armies that were raiſed againſt his Majeſty's dominions at the beginning of the war; and in the next place the advantageous tenor of the articles of the preſent peace.

Aleppo, Dec. 17. Great troubles are broke out in Payas; the Muſſelim of Pachalick is ſet out from this place at the head of 3000 men, to endeavour to quell the ſame. He is to join a body of troops much more conſiderable, under the command of the Baſhaw of Adeno.

Letters from Baſſora adviſe, that Kerim Kam had gained a conſiderable victory over the enemy, near to the city of Tauris, of which he afterwards became maſter. The civil wars which have prevailed in Perſia upwards of forty years, have almoſt depopulated that extenſive Empire. It is with great difficulty men are found to recruit the armies, and money is become exceedingly ſcarce. There are no grounds to hope to ſee publick tranquility ſoon reſtored. Kerim Kam has no children, and his death will probably give birth to freſh troubles.

Madrid, March 25. This morning Col. Don Edward Wall arrived at Court, being diſpatched by Don Pedro Cevallos, Governor of Buenos-Ayres, with the agreeable news of the conqueſt of the colony of St. Sacrament, belonging to the Portugueſe. The Colonel was immediately admitted to an audience of the King, who was deſirous of having from his mouth the particulars of the expedition and ſiege, and the ſtate of the troops in that part of the world.

As ſoon as the Governor of Buenos-Ayres learned that war was declared between Spain and Portugal, he determined to attack that colony. He laid ſiege to the place in the beginning of November: On the 3d of December there were two practicable breaches, and Don Pedro Cevallos was preparing to give the aſſault, when the Portugueſe Governor aſked to capitulate. The garriſon obtained the honours of war. In the place were found a numerous artillery, and a great quantity of ſtores. The number of Spaniards killed and wounded in this expedition amounts only to two hundred.

Paris, April 8. A fire has happened at Eſſoyes, a village in Champaign, which in leſs than five hours time burnt down 270 houſes, together with all the furniture, and conſumed beſides 14000 hogſheads of wine and brandy, together with a great number of horned Cattle. The church and ſteeple were likewiſe entirely burnt, and the bells melted. There are only 31 houſes left ſtanding; four perſons periſhed in the flames, and four more have died ſince, in conſequence of the hurt they then received; 1200 perſons are reduced to the greateſt diſtreſs, by this unhappy accident. Another fire has likewiſe happened in the ſuburbs of Vervins, in Thierach, and the flames were ſo rapid, that in leſs than four hours the whole village was conſumed, and another adjoining to it; ſeventy houſes, nine granaries, ſix ſtables, and five tanneries were deſtroyed, together with all the warehouſes and ſtores therein contained, and four perſons periſhed in the flames.

Venice, March 1. Our Serene Doge, Mark Foſcarini, died laſt night, in the 67th year of his age, and the 10th month of his reign, univerſally regretted, on account of his great talents and good diſpoſition.

Cadiz March 18. The Comptroller of the Cuſtom-houſe of this place has received orders from Court to admit into this harbour Engliſh veſſels; but their cargoes are to be depoſited in the King's warehouſes, till further orders. This circumſtance is very prejudicial to the Engliſh traders, particularly if their cargoes conſiſt of proviſions, which are apt to periſh.

Port l'Orient, March 30. Two 60 gun ſhips have juſt been launched here; one called Les Six Corps, being given by the ſix bodies of Merchants of Paris; and the other called the Diligent, given by the Regiſters-General of the poſts.

Ratiſbon, April 7. The good underſtanding between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and the King of Pruſſia increaſes to that degree that they have concluded an alliance, by which they engage to aſſiſt each other with a body of 12,000 men, one third horſe, and two thirds foot; upon condition, nevertheleſs, that if Ruſſia ſhould be attacked by the Porte, the Court of Pruſſia ſhall furniſh a ſum of money inſtead of troops. The two contracting Powers have alſo engaged to ſupport the Duke of Biren in the poſſeſſion of Courland and Semigalia; and that in caſe the throne of Poland ſhould become vacant, they will endeavour to get a native choſen King inſtead of a foreigner. It is ſaid that this treaty will be made public in a few days.

Extract of a Memorial preſented by the French Miniſter to the States General.

"As by the 11th article of the Preliminaries, Nattal and Tapuloony, on the iſland of Sumatra, are to be reſtored to Great-Britain, and as theſe places had been put in poſſeſſion of the Dutch troops by the Count d'Eſtaing (though without any authority from the French Court) this acquiſition, therefore, to the Dutch being void, as well in form as ſubſtance, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty doubts not that their High Mightineſſes will give immediate orders for ſurrendering theſe forts to the King of Great-Britain, &c."

Toulon, March 20. The ſhips on the ſtocks here are finiſhing with great diligence; and we dont find any diſcontinuance of the amaſſing of timber and other materials for the building of others.

Hague, April 12. The King of Pruſſia appears reſolved to continue armed. He has given orders for levying 36,000 Men, under pretext of peopling and cultivating his Country, and is going to put his army on the ſame footing as before the war. He is alſo filling his magazines. From the conſideration of theſe ſteps our politicians infer, that the neighbours of that Prince ought to put themſelves on a reſpectable footing; and that this Republick in particular ought to augment her land forces, and put her marine in proper order; but there is little probability that either the one or the other will be done, though the expediency of doing both is acknowledged by many provinces, by the Council of State, and by all real friends to their country. It is certain that the Empreſs Queen likewiſe keeps all her forces on foot; and is reſolved to have always a body of 25 or 30,000 men in the Netherlands, for whoſe maintenance meaſures are now taking in that country.

LONDON, March 29.

His Majeſty has conferred the honour of Knighthood on Dr. James Jay, of the province of New-York.

On Friday laſt arrived at Briſtol the Planter, Emmett, from Virginia, in 28 days; the Hector, Capt. Chilcott, bound to Briſtol, came out with her, but parted the day after.

We hear that the collection made for the Colleges in Philadelphia and New-York within the ſmall pariſh of St. Peter, Cornhill, amounted to upwards of 50l.

The fortifications of Rees, and ſome other places in Guelderland, lately deſtroyed by the French, are all ordered to be repaired.

April 5. According to all the advices from Italy, the Corſicans ſeem more than ever determined to erect their iſland into a ſovereignty. They offer to be allies, but not ſubjects to Genoa. They have already, in a manner, put themſelves upon the footing of an independent Power. They have eſtabliſhed a council; they have formed a marine; they have raiſed a regular militia; and they coin money.

A letter from Dantzick, by the way of Hamburgh, ſays that Prince Charles of Saxony, being entirely deprived of the revenues of the dutchy of Courland, and ſeeing his party extremly weakened, and indeed almoſt extinguiſhed, had at length taken the reſolution to retire from Mittau; but as the date of this retreat is not marked, the news ſeems to ſtand in need of confirmation.

The day fixed in France for celebrating the concluſion of the peace, and for the ceremony of dedicating the ſquare of Lewis XV. is June the 15th.

The Right Honourable the Counteſs of Yarmouth is ſet out from her houſe in Pall-mall for Hanover.

By the Brookland, Captain Masterton, arrived at New-York from Briſtol, in five Weeks Paſſage, we have the following Advices, viz.

BERLIN, April 5.

IT is hardly poſſible to expreſs the joy with which the inhabitants of this city received their Sovereign, who arrived here the 30th of laſt month, in perfect health. They pierced the air with repeated acclamations of, LONG LIVE OUR KING AND FATHER! to which his Majeſty moſt affectionately vouchſafed to anſwer, LONG LIVE MY DEAREST SUBJECTS, MY BELOVED CHILDREN! In this manner he was uſhered to the palace, where he ſupped with the Queen, and all the Royal Family. The next day he received the compliments of the nobility, foreign miniſters, &c. and dined with Duke Ferdinand of Brunſwick, who arrived here from Magdebourg the day before his Majeſty. In the afternoon his Majeſty, accompanied by that Prince, went to viſit the Princes and Princeſſes, his brothers and ſiſters. The greateſt rejoicings have continued ever ſince, and laſt night the whole city was magnificently illuminated.

Moſcow, March 17. Her Imperial Majeſty has raiſed the young Baron de Mengden to the rank of enſign. The adventures of this young gentleman are very ſingular. He was but eight years old in 1741, when his father, who was preſident of the council of commerce, was ſent into exile, with all his family, 10,000 werſtes from hence, to a place ſo uncultivated and barren, that the people were often obliged to eat the hides of wild beaſts, which ſerved them for cloathing. Young Mengden paſſed 22 years in priſon. He had never ſeen but three perſons, his father, his mother, and the goaler; and to compleat his misfortune, had the affliction to ſee the two firſt expire in the year 1760. His father had learned him to read, write, and caſt accounts, upon a ſlate, for want of books, paper and ink. He alſo inſtructed him, from his own mouth, in religion, geography and hiſtory. But every other object being abſolutely ſtrange to this young man, when he was releaſed from priſon, he ſeemed to be born a ſecond time. Many perſons now greatly intereſt themſelves in his fortune.

Vienna, April 13. The council of war have paſſed ſentence upon General Brunian, who was arreſted for carrying on a correſpondence with Prince Henry of Pruſſia; in conſequence of which he is deprived of his dignities and honours, and condemned to paſs the reſt of his life in priſon at Kuffſtein, in Tyrole, whither he will ſoon be conducted. The Pruſſian priſoners continue to aſſemble at Peterſburgh, in order to be tranſported to Sileſia.

Hague, April 22. Letters from Madrid, of the 30th paſt, ſay, that an Advice Boat was arrived at Cadiz from Buenos Ayres, with the news, that the Spaniards had attacked the Portugueſe iſland of St. Sacrament the 5th of October, and that on the 29th it was ſurrendered with the garriſon, conſiſting of 1500 men, and 100 pieces of cannon.

Amſterdam, April 11. Letters from Berlin adviſe, that the King of Pruſſia purpoſes to put his Embden Company on a better footing, which the misfortunes of the times, and bad management, prevented from making any progreſs in their trade to India for tea and ſilks.

Hamburgh, April 8. It is fact, that Germany never abounded with ſo much gold and ſilver ſpecie as is found in it now: The immenſe ſums which France and England have poured into the Empire, have not found the way out of it; and if they are not properly diſtributed, a happy circulation during the public tranquility will ſoon place them to better advantage.

LONDON, April 28.

The Auguſta Yacht is fitting out with all poſſible Expedition, and will ſail in a few Days for Holland, in order to bring over the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, to eſpouſe a Princeſs, who is juſtly diſtinguiſhed by the Character of being one of the moſt amiable young Ladies in all the World.

There have been ſome Overtures made to this Court by the Empreſs Queen of Hungary, as ſuppoſed, to enter into a new Treaty of Friendſhip and Alliance.

A new Treaty is under Negotiation, between our Court and that of his Sardinian Majeſty, upon ſome Matters ſaid to be of the greateſt Conſequence to the Repoſe of Germany, &c.

We hear there is a Plan compleated, and approved of by the Board of Works, for building a new Front to his Majeſty's Palace at St. James's.

Letters from France adviſe, that the King of Spain will not be any great Loſer by our taking the Manillas, as the Whole of that Trade was in the Hands of the Jeſuits. A Propoſal was made to the late King of Spain to put a Stop to that Trade, it being a Loſs to the King and the Spaniſh Nation; but the Jeſuits had Art enough to prevent its taking Effect.

A Squadron of Ships of War is getting ready to ſail for the Mediterranean, with the ſeveral Officers appointed to command in the Iſland of Minorca, and with the Squadron many Tranſports will ſail, laden with great Quantities of warlike Stores and Proviſions; but we do not hear of any Troops going there from England or Ireland.

A Number of People, by Royal Bounty, will very ſhortly embark for America, to ſettle there with their Families.

Yeſterday the Duke de Nivernois arrived in Town from Bath.

The laſt Leters from Spain bring Advice, that ſome Ships, with Troops on board, were ſailed for the Havannah.

A Letter from Paris, dated April 18, ſays, "An infinite Number of young People are under Engagement to embark from Breſt, in the Courſe of next Month, for the new diſcovered Iſland in the Eaſt-Indies."

Several Tranſports are ordered round to Plymouth, to take three Regiments on board, that are ordered to Gibraltar, to relieve Part of the Garriſon of that Place.

It is ſaid the Militia is to be kept on the preſent Eſtabliſhment for three Years; each County is to keep up its Compliment of Men, who are to be muſtered and inſtructed in the Military Exerciſe 28 Days in each Year, which are to be appointed by the Officers.

Yeſterday Morning a Gentleman, walking by the Serpentine River, in Hyde-Park, was croſſed two or three times by a well-looking young Man, who at laſt made a full Stop before him, and bid him ſtand. The Gentleman upon this demanded what he wanted; to which the poor Man, burſting out into Tears, anſwered, I want to rob you, but can't. The Gentleman's Humanity was ſtruck at ſo great an Inſtance of Senſibility, and aſſuring the Man he might be under no Apprehenſion, enquired into the Motives which induced him to take ſo dangerous a Courſe; when it appeared that the poor young Fellow had been a Midſhipman on board a Man of War, but that his Ship being paid off, he was out of all Manner of Employment, and reduced to the utmoſt Diſtreſs, having an infirm Mother to ſupport, beſides a Wife and two Children. The Gentleman was ſo much affected at his Story, that he gave him two Guineas, and diſmiſſed him, with ſome cordial Advice upon the proper Methods to purſue, which the other ſeemed to receive with the moſt lively Marks of Gratitude and Satisfaction.

There is no Certainty as yet concerning the pretended Treaty of Alliance between the Courts of Ruſſia and Berlin. It is aſſured that there is a great Deal ſtill wanting before it can be carried into Execution.

Part of the Troops now in Portugal will be draughted off for Minorca, in order to Garriſon that Fortreſs.

It is now ſaid that the Treaſure, &c. taken at the Manillas, is not ſo great as at firſt reported.

April 30. An Apartment is fitted up in the Queen's Palace, for the Reception of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, who is to reſide there with their Majeſties for the Summer.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. the Earl of Sutherland, Edward Ligonier, Eſq; Robert Robinſon, Eſq; and Francis Craig, Eſq; to be Aid-de-Camps to his Majeſty.

On Thurſday Evening the Duke of Bedford ſet out on his return to Paris.

There is ſaid to be ſome Demur in one of the public Companies, about paying a great Annuity to a noble Perſon, till ſuch Time as ſome Particulars are ſettled.

Several more Alterations and Promotions in the Great Offices, it is ſaid will ſtill be made.

It ſaid that 18 Boxes of Silver, which the Jeſuits were ſending out of France, have been ſeized.

A Treaty of Commerce between the Courts of Verſailles, Madrid, and London, is talked of, by which great Advantages will accrue to the three Nations.

A Treaty of Marriage is on Foot between the Archduke Peter Leopold of Auſtria, aged 15, and the Princeſs Maria Beatrix, Daughter of the Hereditary Prince of Modena, aged 14.

Great Inſurances have been making for ſome Days paſt on a very rich Ship coming from the South Seas, on which they give 25 Guineas per Cent.

Advices from Berlin of the 16th inform us, that the Council of War there is making ſtrict Enquiry into the Cauſes of the Misfortunes which happened a few Summers ago near Maxen, to the Troops under the Command of Lieut. Gen. Finck, when that Officer, with his whole Corps, was made Priſoner by the Auſtrians.

The Empreſs Queen, in a Converſation lately with the General Count O'Donnel, a Native of Ireland, was pleaſed to ſay ſome very polite Things in Favour of the Officers of that Country, who had been engaged in her Service during the late War; among others, "My Lord (ſays ſhe) I really wonder I am not able to give Laws to all Europe, when I have ſo many gallant Countrymen of yours in my Service."---To which his Lordſhip, with a very low Bow, replied, "I ſhould wonder equally, Madam, if your Majeſty had not contended with a Prince, who can ſpare ſo great a Number to fight the Battles of his Enemies."

The Amſterdam Gazette, after taking Notice of a Letter from the French King to our Sovereign, delivered by the Duke of Bedford, wherein his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty ſets forth his ardent Deſire to cultivate, conſtantly, the Friendſhip and good Underſtanding happily re-eſtabliſhed between the two Courts; ſays, the Earl of Hertford, who is upon his Departure for Paris, will be charged with an Anſwer to this obliging Letter, expreſſive of the ſame Diſpoſitions in his Britannic Majeſty to render Peace durable between the two Nations.

His Pruſſian Majeſty has directed the Pictures of all the great Officers who fell during the late War, to be painted by the beſt Maſters in Germany, in order to adorn a new Room at Potſman, which is to be called, The Hall of Heroes.

The Venetian Ambaſſador, at Vienna, has received an Expreſs from Conſtantinople, with Advice, that the Miniſter of the Republic in that City had been attacked in his Houſe by a Body of Janiſſaries and the Populace, who had killed 8 of his Attendants; and that it was with great Difficulty his Excellency himſelf eſcaped their Fury, and took Shelter at the French Ambaſſador's.

Not a Day or Night paſſes without Robberies, ſuch Swarms of Rogues has the Peace let looſe upon us, which are daily increaſing, as the Ships are paid off.

It is ſaid that the Baron de Warkotſch, who attemped to betray and deliver the King of Pruſſia into the Hands of the Auſtrians in Sileſia, for which he forfeited his Eſtate, has had a Penſion ſettled upon him by the Empreſs Queen of Hungary.

May 3. On Saturday laſt John Wilkes, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Ayleſbury, was taken into Cuſtody, by four of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, and committed Priſoner to the Tower, by the Secretaries of State, being charged with writing a Paper publiſhed in the North Briton of Saturday the 23d of April laſt. The ſame Afternoon a Motion was made before the Lord Chief Juſtice of the Court of Common Pleas, Weſtminſter-Hall, for a Habeas Corpus to remove him from Confinement, that he might anſwer to the ſaid Charge in Court. Accordingly this Morning, about Half paſt Ten o'Clock, he was brought in a Coach from the Tower of London, attended by the Deputy Conſtable, and other Officers, over London Bridge, and St. George's Fields, to the Court of Common Pleas, Weſtminſter-Hall (which was much crouded on the Occaſion) in order that he might be admitted to Bail, which he refuſed, pleading by his Council, Mr. Serjeant Glynn, for his Diſcharge. The Point in Debate, which laſted from Eleven o'Clock till a Quarter paſt Two, was concerning the Validity of his Commitment; and, after ſeveral learned Arguments, it was poſtponed till Friday Morning next, and Mr. Wilkes was remanded back again to the Tower; his Friends, in the mean time, are to have free Acceſs to him. Mr. Wilkes himſelf ſpoke much on the Occaſion.

It is remarked, in Letters from Berlin, that the King and Queen of Pruſſia are upon better Terms ſince his Majeſty's Arrival from the Army, than they had been for ſome years before.

Letters from Ratiſbon inform us, that the Miniſters of the Germanick Body are already deliberating on the Articles intended to be inſerted in the future Capitulation of a King of the Romans.

We are informed that, upon a certain Commoner's Arrival at the Tower, he told the Lieutenant he had a particular Favour to aſk him; which the latter politely aſſured him he might command, if conſiſtent with his Office. He then requeſted he might be lodged in a Room which had never yet been inhabited by a SCOTCH REBEL. The Lieutenant replied, he feared he had made a Requeſt out of his Power to gratify.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. Lord Bute ſet out from his Houſe in Audley-Street, near Groſvenor-Square, for Harogate in Yorkſhire.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Hon. Admiral Forbes General of the Marine Forces.

We hear that Colonel Morris's Regiment, now in the Eaſt-Indies, is ſoon expected home.

Corke, March 24. Saturday laſt one of the people called Levellers or Whiteboys (who was concerned with about 20 others in carrying off William Howay, from the houſe of his Maſter, John Willington of the county of Tipperary, Eſq; and in barbarouſly cutting his tongue and chin, with a knife, on the 18th day of February laſt) was capitally convicted at the aſſizes of Clonmell, and received ſentence of death, to be executed within two days.

Liverpool, April 1. Wedneſday the ſnow Snapper, Captain Salthouſe, a new veſſel, compleatly rigged and laden for Africa, belonging to Thomas Johnſon, Eſq; and Co. was launched, and immediately proceeded on her voyage to ſea, from Mr. Mercer's the Ship-builder's yard, to the great ſatisfaction of ſeveral thouſand ſpectators, being the firſt veſſel ever known to be launched laden, and proceed to ſea immediately, belonging to Great-Britain or Ireland.

Glouceſter, April 11. On Saturday laſt the following Addreſs was preſented to Charles Barrow, Eſq; one of our Repreſentatives in Parliament, by Deputation from a public meeting of a large number of his Conſtituents, who drew up and ſigned the ſame at the Boothall in this City.

SIR,

"Alarmed at the late fatal blow to Liberty, we, a conſiderable part of the body of Freemen of this City, animated by a lively ſenſe of gratitude on your arrival here, have publickly aſſembled to manifeſt our high eſteem of, and to take this, the earlieſt opportunity, unanimouſly to return our ſincereſt thanks for, your upright conduct in Parliament on all occaſions; but more eſpecially for that laſt inſtance of your watchful care over our liberties, by your ſteady and vigorous oppoſition to a late bill for laying an additional duty on Cyder and Perry by way of Exciſe; any extenſion of which having ever been deemed dangerous to the liberties of a free people.

"However ineffectual thoſe your utmoſt and beſt endeavours may have proved, yet nevertheleſs you are equally entitled to our warmeſt and moſt grateful acknowledgments; and will, we are perſuaded, always be remembered by us and others our fellow citizens with the moſt affectionate and unfeigned gratitude."

LONDON.

April 18. The indictment againſt Mr. Rice, the Broker, for forgery, was laid for only 500l. though he had transferred of the Lady's ſtock 19,900l. Mr. Fennoulett, one of the clerks of the South Sea-houſe, was the firſt witneſs called, who proved the filling up the letter of attorney. Mr. Lowth, another clerk of the South Sea-houſe, proved the filling up the transfer, ſaw rice execute it, and ſwore that he witneſſed the ſame. Mr. Ball the Supervisor, proved the letter of attorney paſſing the committee. Mr. Montague, the Deputy Accomptant, acquainted the Court of the ſtock being replaced to Mrs. Pierce, after the above fraudulent transfer. Mrs. Pierce was then called, who being ſhewn the letter of attorney, denied it being her hand writing, and depoſed ſhe never gave him any ſuch power. No other witneſs was called on behalf of the proſecution. The Court then acquainted Mr. Rice it was his time to make his defence, who anſwered he had nothing to ſay, but deſired ſome gentlemen might be called to his character, two of which were ſworn, who ſpoke of him as a perſon of credit in his profeſſion. The Court acquainted him, where proofs were poſitive, character would have little weight, ſo no more were called. Mr. Rice then urged, that he had been offered protection at Cambray, if he would have changed his religion. He was dreſſed in a ſuit of light grey, trimm'd with black, and had a bag-wig on; he was indulg'd with being at the inner bar, and was allowed a chair; ſeemed much affected, and ſhed tears moſt part of the trial.

About five in the evening he was again brought up to the bar, with the other priſoners, to receive ſentence of death, which was paſſed upon them, in a moſt pathetic and moving manner, by the new Recorder. The court was not full, owing to the demand for the galleries being one guinea for front, and half a guinea for back ſeats.

April 19. Mr. Rice the Broker is not confined in the cells of Newgate, but is favoured with an apartment on the Maſter ſide.

Yeſterday Mrs. Rice preſented a petition to his Majeſty, in behalf of her huſband, now under ſentence of death in Newgate; on the delivery of which ſhe was ſo overcome with grief, that ſhe fainted away.

There is ſomething ſingular in the fate of John Turner, a convict, under ſentence of death in Newgate; he ſtole a ſilver tankard on Monday laſt, was taken on the Tueſday, ſent to Newgate on the Wedneſday, capitally convicted on the Thurſday, and received ſentence of death at the Old-Bailey on Friday.

Yeſterday the Venetian Ambaſſadors made their Public Entry into this city. They landed at Tower Wharff from Greenwich about four o'clock in the afternoon, and from thence proceeded through the city in the following order: 1ſt, the King's Marſhalmen, two and two; 2d, Lord Guildford's coach, drawn by ſix grey horſes; 3d, thirty-eight Footmen, two and two, in very rich liveries; 4th, Gentlemen and Pages on horſeback, two and two; a Band of Muſic; two State-coaches, with two other coaches of his Majeſty, which were followed by the Coaches of the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cumberland, and the Princeſs Amelia; after which proceeded the grand State-coach, drawn by eight horſes, decorated with ribbons, and the top of the coach with four plumes of feathers; and another State-coach, with ſix horſes, both empty; then another State-coach, drawn by Lord Northumberland's horſes, in which were the two Ambaſſadors; which were followed by ſeveral Noblemens coaches. The coaches and liveries of the Ambaſſadors were extremely rich and elegant.

April 21. There were found at the Manilla's, among many other curioſities, and brought here by Col. Draper, eight copper plates, on which are engraved a moſt particular map of the Philippine Iſlands, adorned with the cuſtoms and habits of the inhabitants of thoſe parts, which was done by order of the Governor, and dedicated to his Moſt Catholic Majeſty.

We are informed that Mr. Rice is very ill in his room, in Newgate, and that not any one acquaintance is permitted to ſee him.

By the laſt letters from Vienna, people talk differently of the preſent ſituation of things. According to ſome, a coolneſs between that Court and the Court of Verſailles, has already diſcovered itſelf. The latter, it is ſaid, demands the ceſſion or guaranty of ſome places in the Netherlands, purſuant to the treaty of alliance concluded between the two powers; which the Empreſs-Queen refuſes, alledging that ſhe has reaped no advantage from the war; and that, moreover, the French troops did not follow, or act according to, the plan concerted and agreed to by the two Courts.

BOSTON, June 9.

A moſt ſhocking Murder was committed laſt Saturday at Taunton, by a Negroe Fellow belonging to Dr. M'Kinſtry;---a Siſter of the Doctor's getting up early in the Morning to iron Clothes, the Negroe (after making a Fire) got his Maſter's Horſe, and left him at the Door, and finding an Opportunity took up a hot Flat-iron, with which he ſtruck the Woman on the Back of her Head, and ſtunned her, he repeated the Blow, then dragged her down into the Cellar, and there with an old Ax ſtruck her ſeveral Times; he then took the hot Iron, and rubbed over her Face, ſticking the Point of it into her Eyes, whereby ſhe was ſcorched conſiderably; after he had done this, he took the Horſe and rode off.---The Family ſoon got up and found the Woman in the above Condition; ſhe continued till the Evening of the next Day, and then died: The Negroe was purſued, and taken up at Newport, and confeſſed the Fact.---What induced the Fellow to perpetrate this Crime is not known, as he was always treated well, and there had been no Difference with him in the Family.

NEW-YORK, June 16.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 30.

"This Day Mr. Wilkes, Member of Parliament for Ayleſbury, Writer of the North Briton, is ſent to the Tower, by Warrant, for treaſonable Practices (In other Words, for libelling the Government): In the ſaid North Briton the King's Speech is attacked and treated with unreſerved Freedom; and the Warrant ſets forth that he has endeavoured to ſow Sedition, and alienate the Affections of his Majeſty's Subjects.

"It will make a terrible Noiſe, and no Doubt the City will be all on Fire upon the Occaſion; Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt has granted a Habeas Corpus, and Mr. Wilkes is to be brought, on Monday, to get Bail, if he can obtain it. He refuſed to apply to Lord Chief Juſtice Mansfield, as being a Scotchman. I do not imagine that ever Party Spirit carried People to greater Exceſſes, or was more violently agitated. It is probable Mr. Wilkes will remain in the Tower till the Parliament meets. The Duke of Bedford ſet out on his Return for France Yeſterday.

"Captain ----------of the Charleſtown, is to leave London for New-York in 3 or 4 Days."

June 20. One or two Expreſſes have arrived here ſince our laſt from Albany, with Intelligence, it is ſaid, of the Outrages of the Indians on our Out Poſts and Back Settlements. And a Gentleman who left Albany laſt Thurſday, informs, that the Evening before a Man arrived there, who had been wounded by the Indians at a Place called Green Bay [we ſuppoſe near Fort Detroit] which he ſaid was entirely deſtroyed; and that Fort Detroit muſt have been taken by the Time of his Arrival. He further added, that the Indians had taken nine Battoes, and killed and ſcalped three Men; and that there were many others miſſing, particularly Forty of the Queen's Independents, ſuppoſed to be cut off.

Several Companies of the Artillery Men embarked Yeſterday, ſaid to be ordered Upwards, to reinforce the Garriſons.

A Letter from Albany, dated the 15th Inſtant, ſays, "I am ſorry to inform you of the bad Succeſs of our Indian Traders: The French Indians have cut off all the Poſts and Battoes between Niagara and Detroit, and it is generally believed that Detroit is cut off alſo.----I am doubtful of the Conſequence.-----We have an Account of one Evert Wendell being killed, and John Wendell mortally wounded; they were attacked 40 Miles above Niagara, having 9 Battoes, and 35 Men, out of which Number only 11 are returned to Niagara; they were attacked the 2d Inſtant. Lieutenant Cuyler, with 100 Men, was attacked the 28th ult. within 50 Miles of Detroit, and has only brought to Niagara 30 of that Number.

On Tueſday laſt the New-York Light-Houſe and Publick Lottery began drawing at Mr. Burns's Long Room; ſince which the following Numbers turned up high Prizes, viz. Numbers 7084, and 2864, 1000l. each.---Number 7057, 500l.---Numbers 9866, 3874, 4652, and 2741, 200l. each.---Numbers 7496, and 4627, 100l. each.

Lately publiſhed, and to be ſold by W. DUNLAP, at the Neweſt Printing-Office, on the South Side of the Jerſey Market, Price Two Shillings and Nine-pence,

PREDESTINATION conſiſtent with GENERAL LIBERTY: Or the SCHEME OF THE COVENANT OF GRACE, In which will be handled, The Nature and Extenſiveneſs of the Covenant; the Decrees of Election and Reprobation; efficacious Grace, and a probationary State.----First, the Covenant. 1. It is purely a gracious Covenant. 2. All Men are included in it. 3. It is conditional. 4. There muſt be Life, or no Covenant. 5. The Holy Ghoſt, a new Heart, and Remiſſion of Sins, are promiſed to all the human Race. 6. The Condition muſt be poſſible to all, or no Condition at all. 7. Regenerating Grace is promiſed to the Faith and Endeavours of unregenerate Men. 8. Influences to change the Heart, are the Purchaſe of CHRIST.-----Secondly, The Decrees of Election and Reprobation are certain and definite. Thirdly, Efficacious Grace is neceſſary to Regeneration and Juſtification, from which none can fall.-------Fourthly, A Poſſibility of Falling, always neceſſary to a probationary State, for Regeneration, Juſtification, Eternal Life, or any Thing elſe.

LONDON.

Among the Vindications that have appeared of the late Miniſter, we cannot but greatly prefer the following elegant one, taken from a Pamphlet juſt publiſhed, entituled, "A Letter from a Gentleman in Town to his Friend in the Country, occaſioned by a late Reſignation."

Cadit & Ripheus, juſtiſſimus ille
Qui fuit in Teucris, & ſervantiſſimus æqui.

My dear SIR,

YOU will by this Time have heard of Lord Bute's Reſignation, an Event that has aſtoniſhed the Publick.

I fancy I cannot more agreeably gratify your Curioſity, than by informing you of the Opinions, or rather Conjectures that are formed on this Occaſion. His perſonal Enemies triumph at his Retreat, and boaſt that they have driven him from the Adminiſtration by their ſpirited Oppoſition; but it does not appear they have much Reaſon to vaunt, as not a ſingle Perſon of their Party has been admitted into Government.---The Friends of the late Miniſter aſſirm, that his Reſignation is in Conſequence of a Reſolution early taken, and invariably adhered to by this extraordinary Perſon; who ſeeing the Nation involved in a conſuming War, which, for various Reaſons, no Miniſter but himſelf would put an End to, thought himſelf called upon, not only as the Friend of his Sovereign, but as the Friend of his Country, to undertake the difficult and dangerous Taſk of making Peace: This he happily accompliſhed, and made a Peace which ſpeaks for itſelf. In the Proſecution of this great Work, his Life has been often threatened, and ſometimes in Danger from an exaſperated Multitude: His Character has been attacked with a Virulence, till now unknown: His Relations, his Friends, the Place of his Nativity, have been reviled, and every poſſible Method taken to diſcredit him with the Publick, and to ruin him with the King, his Maſter. This Storm he endured, and perſevered with invincible Conſtancy, till the Peace was ratified and approved by Parliament, and the Buſineſs of the Seſſion brought to a Concluſion: Then he reſigned, leaving the new Miniſtry, ſupported by a great Majority in both Houſes, and not obſtructed by thoſe Prejudices which had been ſo induſtriouſly raiſed up againſt him.

It is reported, that his Lordſhip was determined to the immediate Execution of his Purpoſe by the declining State of his Health, greatly impaired by the Anxiety and Fatigue of Buſineſs. This Opinion of his having early taken a Reſolution to retire, is confirmed by the Mildneſs of his Adminiſtration, and his total Neglect of the Libels againſt him. He has accordingly retired, without Place or Penſion, diſdaining to touch thoſe tempting Spoils which lay at his Feet.

Viewed in this Light, the Conduct of the late Miniſter ſhines with a Splendor of Generoſity and Diſintereſtedneſs that muſt ſtrike every unprejudiced Mind, and even ſoften the Rage of Prejudice itſelf. The Miniſter of the greateſt Kingdom in the World, who voluntarily reſigns, retires, and becomes a private Man, without Rank, Place, or Revenue, ſurely preſents to Mankind an uncommon Spectacle; AN OBJECT OF VENERATION! And every ſerious and reflecting Perſon muſt neceſſarily regret, that this noble Lord found his Countrymen in ſuch a Diſpoſition with regard to him, to require ſo extraordinary an Effort of Magnanimity to do them Service.

The Turbulence of free States is a common Theme of Declamation, and ſeems a Defect, in ſome Degree, inſeparable from Liberty. I am afraid, that this Country has now given an Inſtance of this Diſpoſition, which may lead future Miniſters and future Sovereigns to Views of Government very different from thoſe of the late Miniſter, and the preſent King. His Majeſty, ſince his Acceſſion to the Throne, has voluntarily ſurrendered part of his Prerogative, and Part of his Revenue, for the Sake of Freedom. He hath ſet before his Subjects an uniform Example of every private Virtue; and yet, to confeſs the Truth, Faction has been able to diminiſh the Popularity due to this excellent Prince.

---------Hic Pietatis Honos?

I am unwilling to draw a Concluſion ſo ſevere againſt the Age in which we live, but it ſeems unavoidable.--The King is too virtuous for his People! Their Ingratitude to him is a Proof, that they neither have in themſelves, nor reſpect in others, thoſe Qualities which diſtinguiſh him among Monarchs, and among Men. Perhaps (I am afraid it is more than Perhaps) they would be better Subjects if their Sovereign was not ſo good; and it is no Prophecy to ſay of thoſe head-long Times, that ſome hard ruled King, as Shakeſpear calls Henry VIII. will one Day ariſe, and more than revenge the Wrongs of his Predeceſſor. Such are the Sentiments that I hear from judicious and quiet Men, who ſearching into the Character and Conduct of the King, and his late Miniſter, can find nothing to juſtify the Violence of Oppoſition, nothing to excuſe that moſt injurious Jealouſy of an Intention to attack Liberty, by eſtabliſhing a general Exciſe. For my Part I am fully ſatisfied, that Liberty is in no Danger but from the Growth of Licentiouſneſs, the Arrogance of Faction, and the Temerity of ſeditious Men, working on the Paſſions of their Fellow Subjects.

Whoever conſiders ſome late Proceedings of a very publick Nature, can be at no Loſs to judge from what Quarter the Conſtitution is in Danger. A ſingle Corporation erects itſelf into a Tribunitial Court, condemns the Procedure of Parliament, and gives imperious Council to the King. The more I contemplate the Temper of the Times, and the ſort of Spirit that has prevailed for a Twelve-month paſt, the more melancholy are my Concluſions. A Patriot King, and a Patriot Miniſter, have been deſcribed in the Writings of the Learned, and held up as Objects of Admiration and Deſire: I am afraid this Country has beheld them both, and has not known them. What real Cauſe of Jealouſy or Diſcontent has been given during the late Adminiſtration? Has Germany been the Idol of the Sovereign? or the aggrandizing of his own Family, the Object of the Miniſter? Have Party Diſtinctions been kept up, that the Miniſter might govern by a Party? No: The Oppoſition itſelf have been weak enough to exclaim againſt the wiſe and benevolent Plan of their Sovereign, who choſe to be the King of his People, and not the Leader of a Party.

Amazing! that thoſe very Perſons, who, when in Office, were always ready to receive every one who would liſt with them, ſhould preſume to mutiny againſt their King, and diſtreſs his Adminiſtration, becauſe he received into Favour the independent Country Gentlemen of England, renouncing their antient Prejudices, and avowing Allegiance to their native Prince. Theſe are Facts which admit of no Denial, and lead me ſtill more ſincerely to lament the Loſs of that Conſtitutional Miniſter, who has now reſigned: I call him Conſtitutional, becauſe he was not forced upon the King by a prevalent Faction, but choſen by his Maſter, and therefore liable to the Check and Controul of Parliament, which a Miniſter is not, who ſeizes Government at the Head of a Party, and will be ſupported even in the worſt Meaſures, by the Party whom he leads. But the late Miniſter, beſides being in this remarkable Senſe a Conſtitutional Miniſter, had ſome acknowledged Qualities that rendered him the leaſt dangerous to Liberty, of all thoſe who have ever held his Office: He had not been bred in the School of Corruption; his delicate Nature was ſhocked even at that Degree of it which the Neceſſity of the State requires. Former Miniſters corrupted Individuals, to make them ſwerve from their Duty; now I am afraid, whoever is Miniſter, muſt uſe ſome Influence with Men to make them adhere to it. Diſintereſted and ſincere, the Earl of Bute was apt to think too well of Mankind, and to lay a greater Streſs upon Principle than this Age admits of. His Houſe was a School of Temperance and Regularity; there were neither Routs nor Revels, nor Rioting nor Gaming there: No Man can complain, during his Adminiſtration, of a Promiſe broken, or of Hopes given, and not fulfilled. No inferior Perſon, in any Department where he has ſerved, who does not paſſionately regret the Loſs of ſo eaſy, ſo kind a Superior.---Such is the Miniſter whom this Country has loſt for ever; who, in a moſt perilous Hour, entered on Adminiſtration, and in the Midſt of all his Cares and Anxieties for the State, has been traduced and perſecuted in a Manner unheard of, and even incredible to Poſterity. Amongſt other good Qualities not denied him, he is ſaid to poſſeſs a firm Belief of Religion; elſe, he had Reaſon enough to ſay with Brutus, "Virtue, I have worſhipped thee as a Subſtance, and I "have found thee but an empty Name."

LONDON, April 2.

His Pruſſian Majeſty intends this Summer to viſit all the fortifications in his dominions; and ſeveral new works will be added on the ſides of Pomerania and Pruſſia.

The braſs cannon and mortars, which the Auſtrians found in the caſtle of Glatz, and ſent in triumph to Vienna, are brought back again, the King of Pruſſia inſiſting upon having them all reſtored, agreeable to the preſent treaty.

Letters from Germany by yeſterday's mails take notice of preparations making at Vienna for a journey of the Archduke Leopold to Spain, of his intended marriage with an Infanta, and of his eſtabliſhment in Tuſcany; of that of the Archduke Ferdinand in Italy, where he is to eſpouſe a Princeſs, preſumptive heireſs to ſovereign ſtates; and further, of the marriage of two Archdutcheſſes, one with the Prince of Aſturias, heir apparent to the crown of Spain, and the other with the King of the Two Sicilies.

They write from Ratiſbon, that their contingent, and that of Paſſau, returned from the army of the Empire the 15th of this month; and that neither the one nor the other ſcarcely amounted to a hundred men.---If all the troops of the Empire return to their reſpective countries in the ſame condition, they will make no great figure upon a parade.

They have remarked in Saxony, that during the late war, reckoning from September 1756, eighteen Saxon Generals have died, amongſt whom there were but two who were employed in the field.

By the 16th article of the Definitive Treaty of Peace between the Empreſs-Queen of Hungary and the King of Pruſſia, her Imperial Majeſty guaranties all the dominions of his Pruſſian Majeſty without exception; and the King guaranties all the dominions which the Empreſs poſſeſſes in Germany.---Now though treaties and guaranties ſeldom bind any longer than either of the parties find it convenient to obſerve them, yet, in this article, the King of Pruſſia has got an advantage over the Houſe of Auſtria, as he is obliged to guaranty only her German dominions, whilſt ſhe engages to guaranty all his poſſeſſions, including the very countries ſhe had ſet her heart upon recovering; ſo that if the Empreſs-Queen ſhould hereafter be attacked in the Netherlands, or on the ſide of Hungary, or in Italy, ſhe could not call upon Pruſſia for any aſſiſtance, thoſe countries being out of the German Empire; and yet ſhe has guarantied the Kingdom of Pruſſia, which is likewiſe no part of Germany. However, if that kingdom ſhould again be invaded by the Ruſſians, or any other powers, his Pruſſian Majeſty could have no aſſiſtance to expect from the Court of Vienna; various pretexts might be eaſily found to elude the guaranty, eſpecially on account of its great diſtance from her poſſeſſions. Nevertheleſs, the Pruſſian Monarch has acted wiſely, in manifeſting his ſuperiority by this and moſt of the articles of the treaty.

They write from Moſcow, that the Field-Marſhal Count Alexander Schuwalow has got leave to reſign all his employments; and that the Empreſs has confirmed the grant he obtained from the late Czarina, of 2000 peaſants.---In Ruſſia the peaſants are perfect ſlaves, ſubject to the arbitrary power of their Lords, and transferred like goods and chattels. Hence the improvement of every Gentleman's eſtate in that country, is the number of his peaſants or ſubjects.

They write from Copenhagen, that the number of horned cattle already carried off by the diſtemper that has got among them, amounts to above 100,000 in Denmark only.

A letter from Madrid of the 22d paſt ſays, that for three weeks publick prayers had been offered up in all their churches to implore that fair weather which is ſo neceſſary to the health of man, and the fruits of the earth. "The continual rains (this letter adds) occaſion a very great ſickneſs in this city, and do incredible damage in the country. The oldeſt inhabitants don't remember ſuch conſtant and fatal rains at this ſeaſon. The ſhowers are as violent as thoſe of ſummer, and like them, are attended with thunder, lightening, and hail. At Mouſon, a ſmall town, about ten leagues from this city, they had, on the 29th paſt, a ſtorm of hail-ſtones as big as almonds, and which in many places covered the ground a foot deep."

There is juſt finiſhed, at Mr. Butler's, an eminent coach-maker in Great Queen-ſtreet, a moſt ſuperb carriage, deſigned as a preſent for the famous Nabob Ali Ebuha Jogdrou, Mandarin in Ordinary to the Great Mogul, by the Britiſh Factory in the Eaſt-Indies.

April 9. It is ſaid that ſome methods will be found out next ſeſſions to take off the additional duties laid on cyder and perry, and fix the ſame on ſome other commodities leſs burthenſome, and not to extend the exciſe laws. It is alſo ſaid that it was impoſſible to prevent its paſſing now into a law, as ways and means and the ſupply were cloſed for the ſeſſions.

Concluſion of a Letter from Bareith, March 14.

"Our whole city was in tears yeſterday, at the interment of the Margrave Charles, our late ſovereign; of whom it may with truth be ſaid, that no Prince was ever more regreted by his ſubjects. He uſed often to ſay, and made it apparent throughout his life, that he preferred the character of an HONEST MAN to all other titles in the world."

A woman of the village of Jurva, near Laihela, in Finland, was mother of 17 children, grandmother to 113, and great-grandmother to 60, when ſhe died the 25th of January laſt. At the time of her deceaſe, 90 of theſe deſcendants were ſtill living in the village, where the whole number of inhabitants amounted but to 193.

April 12. A few days ſince, five ſailors on the hoof, to ſee their friends in the country, and flush with money, came to a little hedge alehouſe, kept by one Moſes Browne, between the villages of Cheam and Ewell in Surry, and being ſomewhat rude in their behaviour, the old man ſeemed afraid of them; which they perceiving, told him, that though they were funny dogs, they intended no manner of harm, but only wanting refreſhment, deſired he would provide them with what victuals and drink he had; He accordingly fried them ſome eggs and bacon, and drew them as much liquor as they choſe to drink, which when they had diſpatched, they deſired to know what they had to pay; he made a juſt demand of ſix ſhillings and ſixpence, which they ſwore was too little by far, and aſked him why he did not charge twice as much; he replied, that was his due, and he ſcorned to charge any body more than his conſcience warranted; whereupon they queſtioned him concerning his circumſtances, which he readily informed them of, and which appearing to them none of the beſt, they agreed, after a very ſhort conſultation amongſt themſelves, to do the old man ſome ſingular ſervice for his civility to them; then aſking for his wife, who (having abſconded on their firſt appearance) was produced to them, though not without reluctance on her part, they each of them gave her a hearty ſmack, and a guinea, bid the old couple be of good cheer, and never be frightened at the ſight of a few honeſt tars again, who, though inclined to be whimſical now and then, were men that knew how to repay a good turn, and were always as ready to beſtow, as receive the money that fortune threw into their poſſeſſions; they then went off, and left the old couple with more content in their hearts, and money in their pockets, than they had experienced a long time before.

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, March 21.

"We are threatened by the White-boys, or Levellers, in the ſame manner we were laſt year. I wiſh his Excellency had cauſed a groſs or two of them to be hanged when he was here, probably in that caſe we ſhould not now have been in the ſituation we are in: 14,000 of them are in arms in one county in the province of Munſter, and all ſworn to be true to the cauſe, as it appeared in evidence upon the trial of one of them laſt week, who has been ſince exalted according to his merit. There is one of their Leaders in Clonmill goal, who has offered 20,000 l. bail, which the judge refuſed: He, with ſeveral others now in confinement, are to be tried ſoon at a ſpecial aſſize to be held for that purpoſe. Informations have been lodged againſt ſeveral gentlemen of fortune, not yet taken, for being concerned with them: I hope they will all meet with their deſerts. The light-horſe are in purſuit of them every night, and often wing them in their flight."

April 14. This day both houſes of Convocation will meet in the Jeruſalem Chamber, Weſtminſter-Abbey, in order to draw up an Addreſs to congratulate his Majeſty on the Peace, to be preſented to his Majeſty on Friday next.

PARIS,

ACCORDING to a [illegible]adrid, the Captain of the Hermio[illegible]e, taken by the Engliſh, who has received [illegible] of Death, for not having defended his Ship as he might have done, is likely to be pardoned by his Catholick Majeſty.

Hitherto there is no certainty that the King our Sovereign, in order to indemnify Spain for the Loſs of Florida, has engaged to cede to that Crown one of our Settlements in America.

LONDON, April 20.

The Right Hon. Henry Fox, Eſq; is created Earl of Holland, by the Title of Lord Holland.

The Right Hon. John Viſcount Ligonier is created a Baron of Great-Britain, by the Title of Lord Ligonier, Baron of Ripley.

The ancient Barony of Le Deſpenſer is confirmed unto the Right Hon. Sir Francis Daſhwood, Bart. now Lord Deſpenſer.

On Monday laſt the Marquis of Granby kiſſed the King's Hand, on his being appointed Maſter of the Ordnance.

As did likewiſe General Townſhend, as Lieutenant of the Ordnance.

April 22. On Wedneſday the Right Hon. the Lord Ward kiſſed his Maj[illegible]ſty's Hand, on being created Viſcount Dudley.

We are credibly informed that the Earl of Huntington, Groom of the Stole to his Majeſty, is appointed to go Ambaſſador to the Court of Madrid, in the Room of the Earl of Sandwich, appointed firſt Lord of the Admiralty.

As it is expected that ſome Diſturbances may happen on the Commencement of the additional Duties on Cyder, we hear, but hope it is not true, that three Regiments are ordered to march into the Cyder Counties, to ſuppreſs any Diſturbances that probably will happen.

One of the greateſt Grievances, perhaps, in the Cyder-act, though not hitherto mentioned, as we know of, is that by the Clauſe which enacts, that no one ſhall lend out his Veſſels for making Cyder, the poorer Sort of People in the Country, who commonly have a few Apples, but no Veſſels, will be deprived of the only Means that Providence has ſent them, of furniſhing them with that wholeſome Liquor.

April 23. We are aſſured the Duke of Rutland continues in his Place of Maſter of the Horſe to the King.

His Majeſty hath appointed the Right Hon. the Earl of Gower to be Lord Chamberlain, in the Room of the Duke of Marlborough; and Yeſterday his Lordſhip had ſent him the White Wand and Golden Key.

The Right Hon. the Lord d'Eſpencer is appointed Maſter of the King's Wardrobe, in the Room of the Earl of Gower.

His Grace the Duke of Marlborough is appointed Lord Privy Seal, in the Room of the Duke of Bedford.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Harcourt is made Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, in the Room of the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

And the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Weymouth is appointed Maſter of the Horſe to her Majeſty, in the Room of the Earl of Harcourt.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint John Roſs Mackey, Eſq; Member for Kircudbright in Scotland, Treaſurer and Paymaſter of the Ordnance, on which Account his Seat is vacated in Parliament.

On Monday laſt his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York dined with Sir John Hind Cotton, &c. at the Brewhouſe in St. Katherine's, upon Beef Stakes dreſſed upon Coals in the Stock Hole of the ſaid Brewhouſe.

The Right Hon. William Earl of Shelburne, the Right Hon. Stephen Earl of Ilcheſter, Charles Spencer, Eſq; commonly called Lord Charles Spencer, Comptroller of his Majeſty's Houſhold, Richard Rigby and James Oſwald, Eſquires, were this Day Sworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Sir Richard Lyttleton, Knight of the Bath, to be Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Iſland of Minorca.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Robert Murray, Eſq; the Office of Receiver General and Caſhier of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in Scotland; and alſo the Office of Receiver General of His Majeſty's Duties on Salt made in Scotland.

April 25. A Fleet of Obſervation is ordered to the Weſt-Indies, to be commanded by Admiral Tyrrel, and to be ſtationed there for three Years.

The Thanks of the Houſe of Commons has been voted to Lieut. Gen. Draper, and Admiral Corniſh, for the important Services they have rendered to their King and Country, by the Reduction of the Manilla's.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled,

Moſt humbly ſheweth,

"THAT your Petitioners are fully convinced, that the collecting the Duties intended to be laid on the Makers of Cyder and Perry, by way of Exciſe, is not, nor can in many Inſtances be ſo regulated, but that it will occaſion numberleſs Difficulties and Queſtions.

"That the Method of Trial and Deciſion of Exciſe Diſputes are founded only in Neceſſity, being in their Nature arbitrary, and inconſiſtent with the Principles of Liberty, and the happy Conſtitution of your Majeſty's Government.

"That the expoſing private Houſes to be entered into, and ſearched, at Pleaſure, by Perſons unknown, will be a Badge of Slavery upon your People.

"That your Petitioners, firmly confiding in your Majeſty's Favour, and filled with a moſt humble and grateful Senſe of your paternal Affection for your People, moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty to protect their Liberties, and keep them happy, and at Eaſe; free in their Property. By which your Majeſty will erect a laſting Monument of your Goodneſs in every Houſe in the Kingdom.

"Your Petitioners therefore moſt humbly implore your Majeſty, that you will not give your Royal Aſſent to ſo much of the Bill, as ſubjects the Makers of Cyder and Perry to Exciſe Laws.

"And your Petitioners ſhall ever pray, &c."

Letters from Francfort, of the 9th, ſay, that a Miſunderſtanding has happened between the Courts of France and Vienna, about the Treaty of Alliance that they have made: It is aſſured, that by virtue of the ſaid Treaty ſeveral Places in the Auſtrian Netherlands were to be ceded to the former by the latter, which the Empreſs Queen refuſes to perform.

A private Letter from Paris aſſerts, that notwithſtanding all the reports about ſeveral Ships of War being ordered to be built in France, there was not one but what was upon the Stocks before the Peace, and were given to the King of France by ſome of the Nobility, Corporations, &c. which are building at their Expence.

April 28, 29, 30. During the Courſe of laſt Seſſions 112 Bills received the Royal Aſſent, including the very memorable Bill for laying additional Duties on Wines, Cyder, and Perry; which, it is now ſaid, to ſtop the Mouths of popular Clamour, will be repealed next Seſſion.

It is ſtill ſaid there will be more Exchanges and Removals at Court. Time will diſcover what they be. However, it is to be hoped that all Diſputes will be ſettled to the Satisfaction of all Parties, which muſt pleaſe every good Man.

Affairs [illegible] critical Situation at Court: Several more Alterations, it is ſaid, will ſtill be made; but as [illegible] nty inſert Names, we think it prudent to [illegible] can be done by proper Authority.

May [illegible] Publiſher and Printer of the North-Briton, [illegible] to Cuſtody, were examined at Lord Halifax's [illegible] day John Wilkes, Eſq, Member of Parliament, [illegible] was taken into Cuſtody by four of his Majeſty's [illegible] conducted to his Lordſhip's Houſe, and from thence [illegible] Priſoner to the Tower, being charged with writing a Piece in the North Briton of Saturday the 23d of April laſt; all his Papers were ſeized, and afterwards depoſited in Lord Halifax's Office: And we hear that the Papers are under the Examination of Philip Carteret Webb, Eſq; Solicitor of the Treaſury, and Lovel Stanhope, Eſq; Law-Clerk of the Secretary of State's Office.

Mr. W. it is ſaid, diſputed the Authority of the Meſſengers the firſt Time of their coming to his Houſe.

Yeſterday the Rev. Mr. Preſton was brought to the Court of King's Bench, to receive Judgment for publiſhing a Libel; when the Court thinking him inſane, he was remanded back to Priſon.

The Rev. Mr. Churchill was alſo carried to the E. of Halifax's Office, and after Examination was diſcharged.

The North-Briton did not make his Appearance laſt Saturday. Perhaps, as he is in ſtrong Hold, he is not allowed the Uſe of Pen, Ink and Paper. But a new Combatant has entered the Political Liſts, under the Appellation of The Champion. His preſent Attempt is levelled directly at the now openly avowed Author of the North-Briton, and his Rev. Friend, the Author of The Prophecy of Famine. Of the firſt he ſays, "that Envy, Malice and Preſumption alone guided his Pen;" of the latter, that "he writes for Bread," &c.

The Hand of Authority being lifted up, in order to fall heavily on ſuch Political Writers as may diſpleaſe, whereby, we ſuppoſe, the Monitor of Saturday, is more cautious. He inoffenſively talks about Liberty, which, he ſays is the "Eſſence of our National Conſtitution."

A Letter from Paris, dated April 14, ſays, "We are already ſenſible of the good Effects of Peace, by the continual Arrival of Gentlemen and Ladies from all Parts of England; and there is no doubt but this Court will make it its conſtant Study to keep a perfect Friendſhip and good Underſtanding with that of Great Britain.

Notwithſtanding the Number of Seamen that are now out of Employ, in and about this Metropolis only, ſeveral Ships that are to be employed in the Greenland Fiſhery the preſent Seaſon, are detained in the River for want of Hands, though all proper Encouragement is given them to enter into the Service.

St. James's, April 20. His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to declare the Right Hon. Hugh Earl of Northumberland, Lieutenant General, and General Governor of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland.

April 22. His Majeſty having been pleaſed to deliver the Cuſtody of the Privy Seal to his Grace George Duke of Marlborough, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day adminiſtered unto him; and his Grace took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, April 23. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Earl of Sandwich, George Hay, Doctor of Laws, the Right Hon. Hans Stanley, Eſq; the Right Hon. John Lord Carysfort, the Right Hon. Richard Lord Viſcount Howe, the Right Hon. Henry Lord Digby, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Thomas Pitt, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. William Earl of Shelburne, of the Kingdom of Ireland, Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, Edward Bacon, the Hon. John York, and George Rice, Eſquires, the Right Hon. Francis Baron Orwell, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Bamber Gaſcoigne, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for promoting Trade and Plantations in America.

Oxford, April 23. Wedneſday the Duke de Nivernois arrived here from Blenheim. The next Morning his Excellency took a View of the Colleges, &c. In the Afternoon a Convocation was held in the Theatre, when the Honorary Degree in Civil Law was conferred on him; and Yeſterday Morning his Excellency ſet out for Bath.

BOSTON, June 16.

We hear that Col. MONTAGUE WILMOT, of his Majeſty's 45th Regiment, is appointed Lieutenant Governor of the Province of Nova-Scotia, in the Room of the Hon. JONATHAN BELCHER, Eſquire.

Extract of a Letter from Martinico, May 1.

"A Packet arrived here from England two Days ago, by which we learn, that this Place is to be given up the 10th of June: The Frenchmen are very ſaucy now, and will be more ſo when they have the entire Command: Mr. Aquart's Store was broke open laſt Night, and ſundry Things belonging to the Cargo of the Brig Mermaid of Boſton, ſtole away: There are no French Ships here, except one ſmall Man of War: A Spaniſh Privateer, or rather Pirate, has within two or three Days paſt taken four Veſſels off Dominico, and put the People aſhore there."

We have Advice from Martinico, that a Brig belonging to Mr. Nelſon of Piſcataqua, with him on board, coming from the Grenades, was drove aſhore the 8th of laſt Month, 2 Leagues to Leeward of St, Pierre's, and the Veſſel loſt.

Two ſmall Pirate Sloops were cruizing near Dominico.

The Report of a Biſhop being ſent to America gains Credit; and the two Colleges of New-York and Philadelphia have received great Encouragement.

PROVIDENCE, June 18.

On Wedneſday laſt Mr. Joſeph Weſcott, late Mariner on board the Sloop Kinnicutt, Capt. George Hopkins, of this Port, arrived here (via New-London) from St. Chriſtophers, by whom we have the following Account of the Capture of ſaid Veſſel, on her Voyage from Surrinam to this Port, viz. On the 27th of March they ſailed from Surrinam, and four Days after they left the River, they unfortunately fell in with a Spaniſh Privateer Schooner, mounting eight Swivel Guns, manned chiefly with Mulattoes, who immediately boarded and took Poſſeſſion of the Sloop, and carried Capt. Hopkins and his People on board the Privateer: She then proceeded with her Prize to Trinidad, from whence, it ſeems, the Governor of that Place had diſpatched this Veſſel to cruiſe on the Engliſh, and pretended he had received no Orders from Spain for a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities: He was highly offended with the Captain for returning with ſo ſmall a Booty as one Veſſel, and ſent her out again directly, without permitting any of the Engliſhmen to come on Shore, with ſtrict Injunctions not to return again till he had taken 6 or 8 Sail, or ſomething more worthy of his Notice.

The Prize Sloop was alſo ſent off for St. Euſtatius, to ſell her Cargoe, after taking out about 17 or 18 Hogſheads of Melaſſes.---The Captain of the Privateer, being unwilling to keep ſo many Engliſhmen on board (being nine in Number) made ſeveral Attempts to land them on a maroon Iſland, but was happily prevented from effecting his diabolical Deſign by contrary Winds; at length he ſet our Informant, and four more of them, aſhore on the Spaniſh Main, and left them to the Mercy of the Indians, keeping Capt. Hopkins, Mr. Oliver Bowen, his Mate, and two of his Foremaſtmen, on board the Privateer. The People aſhore unexpectedly met with very kind Treatment from the Natives, with whom they continued about a Month, when an Engliſh Veſſel arrived on that Coaſt, on board of which they embarked, and came to St. Kitts; from thence ſome of the People went down to St. Euſtatius, where they found the Sloop ſafely moor'd, and were informed that her Cargoe was all ſold. Though this Misfortune is an Aggravation to the repeated Loſſes this Place has ſuſtained in Navigation (having loſt near 60 Sail within ſeven Years paſt) yet it ſeems obliterated in the univerſal Joy the Safety of Captain Hopkins and his People has given the Inhabitants of this Town, who apprehended a worſe Fate had befallen them.

Mr. Weſcott further adviſes, that he was told by an Engliſh Lad on board the Privateer, that an Account of the Peace had been received at Trinidad, but he did not know from whence; and that the Governor was appointed there only for two Years; by which it ſeems as if he intended to make his Fortune, at all Events, while he had Power in his Hands.---It is not doubted but ample Reſtitution will be made for this Violation of the late eſtabliſhed Peace, and, if this Governor has acted an unjuſt Part, he will meet with his Deſerts, upon a proper Application to the Spaniſh Court, eſpecially as they have ſo recently experienced the fatal Effects of provoking Britiſh Reſentment.

NEW-YORK, June 23.

On Tueſday Evening an Expreſs arrived from Albany, with Diſpatches for his Excellency Sir Jeffery Amherſt, from the Commanding Officer at the Detroit: And, we hear, brings an Account of the baſe and treacherous Behaviour of the Indians, in thoſe Parts; they having on the 7th of May, to the Number of Three Hundred, come to the Fort in a friendly Manner, to pay, as they ſaid, a formal Viſit; but the commanding Officer luckily got Intelligence of their Evil Deſigns the Night before; and was ſo much on his Guard, that the Indians, who were armed with Knives, Tomahawks, and a great many with Guns cut ſhort, and hid under their Blankets, when they ſaw the Diſpoſition of the Garriſon, and that their Deſigns were diſcovered, went off after receiving a few Preſents: They, however, ſent out Parties, who committed ſeveral Barbarities on ſome of our People, who unfortunately happened to be at a Diſtance from the Fort; and had afterwards the Aſſurance to come with a Pipe of Peace, deſiring to be admitted into the Fort, no Doubt with an Intention to cut off the whole Garriſon; But the commanding Officer having refuſed to receive any beſides their Chiefs, the next Day they inveſted the Fort, and commenced Hoſtilities; but could make no Impreſſion whetever on the Garriſon, who bravely defended themſelves, and were well ſupplied with Proviſions and Ammunition.---We hear that Reinforcements are ſent, which, we hope, will get there in good Time, not only to ſave that Poſt, but to pour Vengeance on the Heads of thoſe Barbarians, who have thus perfidiouſly attacked their Benefactors.

We hear that the King of Spain has made Monto Chriſto a free Port for all Nations, they paying 5 per Cent. Duty upon all Goods exported from thence.

June 27. His Excellency Governor MONCKTON, embarks To-morrow for England, on board the Edward, Capt. DAVIS; His Excellency, we hear, having reſigned the Seals for that Purpoſe on Saturday laſt, to his Honour Lieutenant Governor COLDEN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.

On Monday next the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here, by Summons from his Honour the GOVERNOR.

Tuſkerawas, May 27, 1763, Eleven o'Clock at Night.

King Beaver, Shingas, Wyendougheta, Wingeenum, and Daniel and William Anderſon, all Chiefs of the Delawares, came to my Houſe, and, by a String of Wampum, delivered me the following Intelligence, viz.

BROTHER,

OUT of the Love we have for you, and the Friendſhip that has always ſubſiſted between our Grandfathers and the Engliſh (which has been lately renewed by us) we come now to inform you what News we have heard, which you may depend upon is Truth.--------

BROTHER,

At Detroit, we hear, there is not one Engliſhman left alive. At St. Duſky all were put to Death, five Days ago, except the Officer, who is taken Priſoner. And at Cedar-Point ſix Men were killed, and two Perſons taken Priſoners, being Hugh Crawford, and a Boy that ſpeaks Shawaneſe.

BROTHER,

We have heard To-day from the Salt-Licks, that five White Men were killed there. We have likewiſe heard, that a Number of Tracks have been ſeen on the Road from St. Duſky here, not far off, and we have ſent out a Man to watch their Motions. We have likewiſe ſeen Tracks paſſing the Road between here and Gaiahouga.

BROTHER,

We love you, and would be ſorry to ſee you killed in our Town: So we deſire you not to think of any Thing you have here, but, with all Speed, make the beſt of your Way to ſome Place of Safety, carefully avoiding the Road, and all Places where Indians reſort.

BROTHER,

We deſire you to tell George Croghan, and all your Great Men, that they muſt not aſk us any Thing about it; for we don't know any Thing. When they went to ſpeak firſt to theſe People, they did not tell us, but went another Road: Now if they want to know the Reaſon of this, they muſt go the very ſame Road to enquire of it. And if they want any Thing of us, they muſt only ſend one or two Men, and we will hear them.

BROTHERS the ENGLISH,

We thought that your King had made a Peace with us, and all the Weſtern Indians: For our part we joined it heartily, and do hold it always good, and will not be cheated any more, as we ſit in the Middle; but we will move a little to one Side of the Road, ſo that ye may paſs to one another, and do what you pleaſe, and we will take no Notice of it.

BROTHER,

There is one White Man at Gaiahouga; don't be concerned about him; we will take Care to ſend him ſafe Home.

BROTHER,

As to what Goods you have here, we promiſe they ſhall be kept ſafe for ſix Months; perhaps by that Time we may ſee you, or ſend you Word what you may expect us to do further.

THOMAS CALHOON."

Extract of a Letter from Carliſle, June 20.

"We are yet in Suſpenſe whether the Indians will carry the War into our inhabited Parts, but that they certainly intended it, is to me beyond any Doubt.----About the 14th Inſtant a Man, who went out to catch a Horſe at Ligonier, was killed, or carried off, almoſt in View of that Garriſon.----An Indian, who has a white Woman to Wife, is now on his Way, with ſome white People, flying from Potowmack, and ſays, the Indians have acquainted him with their Intentions, viz. That they deſign to carry the War to as great an Extent as they can, in which a great many Tribes are joined: That they are to attack the Inhabitants in the Seaſon of Harveſt: That they are to burn and deſtroy all Sorts of Proviſion; And that they are determined to make no Priſoners, but kill all that fall into their Hands.----This Account I have from different People, who talked with the Indian at Shippensburgh.----The Country is in great Diſtreſs, occaſioned by the People leaving their Plantations."

In a Letter from Shippensburgh, of the ſame Date with the above, it is ſaid the Inhabitants are in the greateſt Conſternation there, expecting the Enemy ſoon in the Valley, as they had heard of ſome People being killed at Bedford.

By ſeveral Letters from Fort-Bedford, of the 18th Inſtant, we have the following Particulars, viz. That the poor Farmers, who had left their Places, and come into the Fort, had returned to their Plantations again, at the Riſk of their Lives, for the Preſervation of their Crops, in order to prevent ſtarving in the Winter: That the Enemy, ever watchful for ſuch Opportunities, had ſtruck a ſevere Blow on Denning's Creek, where three or four Families were murdered and ſcalped on the 17th and 18th: That it was not known what Courſe the Indians would take next, but that it was abſolutely neceſſary for every one to be on his Guard: That ſome who left the Garriſon were returned, lamenting, from their fatal Experience, that they did not, as they had been adviſed, go to each others Plantations in Bodies, and not by Two's and Three's: That a Dog (belonging to one James Clark, who had gone with another Man to plough their Corn, about twelve Miles from the Fort) came into the Garriſon wounded; upon which a ſcouting Party went out, and returned with a Spear they found ſticking in the Body of ſaid Clark, who was ſcalped, and inhumanly mangled; but were afraid to hunt for the other Man, as they perceived a Number of Indian Tracks in the Woods: That a Man and his Wife, who lived about eight Miles from Bedford, had juſt come in, and informed, that being in a Corn Field, near their Houſe, they heard a Gun go off, when a Cry inſued, and ſoon after ſix Guns more were fired, which obliged them to ſet off for the Fort: And that about an Hour after they got in their Houſe was ſeen in Flames, and, it was feared, all that were in it deſtroyed.

Extract of a Letter from Pittſburgh, June 16, 1763.

"We are informed by a Priſoner, who had been amongſt the Shawaneſe Indians, that, in making his Eſcape from them, he overtook Mr. Calhoon, and nine of his Men, who traded at Tuſkerawas; alſo two Men of Aliſon and M'Crea's, who were driving Horſes loaded with Skins from the Lower Shawaneſe Town, who told him, that the Delaware Indians had informed Mr. Calhoon, that St. Duſky was ſurpriſed and taken by the Indians, the Garriſon and all the Traders there murdered, except Lieutenant Pauley, the Officer, who commanded, whom they made Priſoner: That Detroit had been beſieged ten Days before this happened: That Mr. Crawford, a Trader at Meamy River, was taken Priſoner, with one of his Men: That the Indians had killed ſix other Men who were in Company with him, coming down the River with Skins: That the Delaware Indians deſired Mr. Calhoon to leave that Place immediately, leſt he ſhould be killed by the Indians who began the War; then ſeized his Goods, and diſarmed him, and the reſt of his Men, and ſent two Indians to conduct them to this Place, who brought them by unfrequented Roads to Beaver Creek, about 30 Miles from this Fort, where they led them into an Ambuſcade of Six Nation Indians, who attacked them, and he believed killed the whole Party of white Men, as he ſaw none eſcape but himſelf; however, at different Times, within three Days after, Mr. Calhoon, and two of his Men, arrived here, who alſo, with great Difficulty, made their Eſcape; the reſt of the Party, eight in Number, were all killed by the Indians.----The 7th Inſtant Mr. Wilkins, and an Expreſs from Venango, arrived here, who brought Letters from Preſque-Iſle, informing us, that a large Quantity of Proviſions, from Niagara to Detroit, eſcorted by about One Hundred Men, was attacked within 18 Miles of Detroit, in the Night, by a Party of Indians, who deſtroyed all the Proviſions, and killed 67 Men of the Party. Detroit is the only Garriſon we have beyond this that can make any Defence. The reſt of our Garriſons to the Weſtward, I think, before this Time are all maſſacred. Since the 29th of laſt Month every Perſon here, fit to carry Arms, has undergone the ſevereſt Military Duty; and, by the Care of the Commander, and the reſt of the Officers, the Fort is now in a good Poſture of Defence. Not a Man goes without Gunſhot of the Fort, who is not fired at by the Indians. What Number there is of them about us we are ignorant of, as the Commander will not ſuffer the Men to expoſe themſelves to the Danger of the Enemy, except in the Defence of the Fort. Yeſterday we had one Man killed, who ventured a little farther from a Party which was out for Forage than he had Orders; and laſt Night the Indians had the Impudence to fire pretty briſkly for ſome Time upon our Centries in the Fort. The Garriſon in general are all in good Spirits, and I think they need not be under any Apprehenſions that the Indians will be able to take the Place."

Extract of another Letter from Pittſburgh, of the ſame Date.

"We have Alarms from, and Skirmiſhes with, the Indians every Day; but they have done us little Harm as yet.----Yeſterday I was out with a Party of Men, when we were fired upon, and one of the Serjeants was killed; but we beat off the Indians, and brought the Man in with his Scalp on.----Laſt Night the Bullock Guard was fired upon, when one Cow was killed.----We are obliged to be on Duty Night and Day.----The Indians have cut off above 100 of our Traders in the Woods, beſides all our little Poſts.----We have Plenty of Proviſions; and the Fort is in ſuch a good Poſture of Defence, that, with God's Aſſiſtance, we can defend it againſt 1000 Indians."

Extract of a Letter from Wincheſter, in Virginia, June 22.

"Laſt Night I reached this Place. I have been at Fort-Cumberland ſeveral Days, but the Indians having killed nine People, and burnt ſeveral Houſes near Fort-Bedford, made me think it prudent to remove from thoſe Parts, from which, I ſuppoſe, near 500 Families have run away within this Week.----I aſſure you it was a moſt melancholy Sight, to ſee ſuch Numbers of poor People, who had abandoned their Settlements in ſuch Conſternation and Hurry, that they had hardly any thing with them but their Children. And what is ſtill worſe, I dare ſay there is not Money enough amongſt the whole Families to maintain a fifth Part of them till the Fall; and none of the poor Creatures can get a Hovel to ſhelter them from the Weather, but lie about ſcattered in the Woods."

A Letter from Fort Bedford, of June 20, mentions a Scouting Party being juſt come in, and brought a Confirmation of three Houſes being burnt, and ſeven People killed, but not ſcalped, viz. three Men, one Woman, and three Children.

THE High Dutch Reformed Miniſters of Pennſylvania having, in their Meeting on the Sixth of May laſt, accepted of the Complaints which were brought againſt me, taking the ſame to be true, and directly condemned the Defendant, without communicating the Complaints to me, nor hearing my Defence; my Character being ſhamefully attacked and blemiſhed, in an Advertiſement (under the Invocation of the holy Name of God) publiſhed laſt Thurſday in the Pennſylvania Gazette and Journal: In this Diſtreſs and Perſecution, I beg all Chriſtian Hearts not to believe every Thing that has been mentioned in their Advertiſement of laſt Week, without ſearching into the Truth firſt; but defer their Judgment in this Caſe, till Innocence be laid down publickly before the next Court, and my defamed Character defended.

THE LAWFULNESS, EXCELLENCY, and ADVANTAGE of INSTRUMENTAL MUSICK in the publick Worſhip of GOD, urged and enforced from Scripture, and the Example of the far greater Part of Chriſtians in all Ages. Addreſſed to all (particularly the Preſbyterians and Baptiſts) who have hitherto been taught to look upon the Uſe of Inſtrumental Muſick in the Worſhip of GOD as unlawful. By a PRESBYTERIAN.

Muſick has Charms to ſooth the Savage Breaſt,
To ſoften Rocks, and bend the knotted Oak. CONGREVE.

 The kind Reception the Public have been pleaſed to give this little Performance (which is calculated to promote the Good of Religious Society in general) has induced us to give it a ſecond Edition, the firſt being all diſpoſed of in a very ſhort Time after Publication.

Juſt publiſhed, in Wilmington, New-Caſtle County, and to be ſold there by JAMES ADAMS;-------and, in Philadelphia, by DAVID HALL, WILLIAM BRADFORD, and WILLIAM FALCONER (Price Two Shillings and Three-pence)

AN ESSAY on the GOSPEL MINISTRY. Wherein the Nature of this Miniſtry, the Propriety of employing Men therein, the Importance of it, the Qualifications requiſite in a Goſpel Miniſter, and the Means of preſerving an able and faithful Miniſtry, and preventing its being corrupted, are briefly conſidered.

By JAMES FINLEY, V. D. M.

To which are added, three Emphatical ADDRESSES; the Firſt to a Clergyman; the Second from a Father to his Sons intending the Miniſtry; and the Third to the Laity. ¶

For One Groat may be had (juſt publiſhed by ANDREW STEUART, at the Bible-in-Heart, in Second-ſtreet)

A CUDGEL, to drive the Devil out of every Chriſtian Place of Worſhip: Being a ſecond Edition [With neceſſary Improvements, which now render the Senſe entirely plain] of the Lawfulneſs, Excellency and Advantage, of INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC, in the public Worſhip of GOD, but chiefly of ORGANS.

To be SOLD,

AN Iriſh Servant Girl's Time, that has near three Years to ſerve, fit for City or Country Buſineſs, but would chuſe to be ſold in the Country. Enquire at Mr. SAMUEL JOHNSTON's, in Second-ſtreet.

THREE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the Subſcriber, living between the Branches of Elk, on the Firſt Inſtant, a Servant Man, named Nathaniel M'Dowell, about 30 Years of Age, born in the North of Ireland, by Trade a Spinning-wheel-maker, about five Feet eight Inches high, wears his own black buſhy Hair, round Face, and rough Features: Had on when he went away, a blue under Jacket, light coloured outſide Jacket, with Sleeves and Cuffs, new Cloth Breeches, Thread Stockings, good Shoes, and Check Shirt; is remarkably fond of ſmoaking Tobacco, and drinking Spirits. As it is known an Intimacy has ſubſiſted between him and a neighbouring Woman, the Wife of Alexander Logan, who left her Huſband about the ſame Time, and took her Child with her, a promiſing Boy, ſix Years old, with white Hair, it is thought they are gone together, and that they will go to Philadelphia. Whoever takes up the ſaid Servant, and ſecures him in any Goal, ſo as his Maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above Reward, and reaſonable Charges, paid by JOHN STRAWBRIDGE.

N. B. All Maſters of Veſſels are forbid to carry him off. Tbc.

A GENERAL Meeting of the Ohio Company is deſired at Stafford Court houſe, on Potomack Creek, in Virginia, the firſt Monday in July next. The general Aſſembly of Virginia being unexpectedly called, will prevent the Committee of the Ohio Company from meeting on the firſt Monday in June, as was formerly advertiſed; and as there are Matters of the greateſt Importance to the Company to be ſettled at their next Meeting, this Notice is ordered to be publiſhed in the Virginia, Maryland and Pennſylvania Gazettes, that the ſeveral Members may be informed of it. By Order of the Committee of the Ohio Company. 8

Pennſylvania, ſs. Philadelphia, May 30, 1763.

THE Delinquents in the General Loan-Office (for the laſt Time) have this public Notice, That unleſs all the Mortgages in the ſaid Office are diſcharged by the 30th Day of July next, the Truſtees will then proceed to make Sale, and, however diſagreeable to them, will be under a Neceſſity of cloſing all the Outſtandings, in order to diſcharge their Duty, according to Law; and then all the Names of the Mortgagors will be publiſhed in this Paper, beginning with thoſe of the longeſt ſtanding, and ſo proceeding until all are ſold. And the Cuſtomers to this Paper, in each County of this Province, are requeſted to inform their Neighbours (who may not be ſo) of the Purport of this Advertiſement, which may be of ſingular Service to all concerned, and oblige the ſaid Truſtees.

May 23, 1763.

WHEREAS the Time limited by the Provincial Commiſſioners, publiſhed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, for ſettling with, and paying off, ſuch Perſons, in the ſeveral Counties of this Province, as have loſt Apprentices by Enliſtments into the late King's, or His preſent Majeſty's Service, is now elapſed, and a Number of Orders, drawn in Behalf of ſuch Perſons, lie at the Board, not applied for by thoſe to whom they belong, owing, as is ſuppoſed, to the Papers not having yet reached the remote Parts of the back Counties, it is thought proper to give this further Notice to all concerned, that unleſs the Orders drawn as aforeſaid be ſhortly applied for, and all Apprentices Indentures yet unſettled be brought in, the Proprietors thereof will by Law be precluded from any Compenſation from the Government for their reſpective Loſſes.

By Order of the Board,
CHARLES MOORE, Clerk.

TO BE SOLD,

A Small Tract of Land, conſiſting of about 100 Acres, ſituate at the Head of Buſh River, in Baltimore County, Maryland, on which Land there is a commodious Dwelling-houſe, with all neceſſary Office-houſes, and a good ſmall Stone Cellar to the Houſe, a Well of good Water, with a Pump in it, and what Part of the Land is cleared is under good Fence; the Place would be very convenient for one in the Practice of Phyſick, as there is a good Neighbourhood, and a large Opening for one in that Way, the Subſcriber having practiſed theſe three or four Years, but is now obliged to go to Britain; there is alſo to be ſold a Quantity of Medicines, Shop Furniture, and Surgeons Inſtruments, Value about One Hundred Pounds Sterling. The Buſh River Company has alſo for Sale a Griſt and Saw-mill, contiguous to the above Place, and would be very ſuitable for a Miller.

¶ 6W. ALEXANDER STENHOUSE.

To be LETT for a Term of Years, to an Innkeeper of Credit and good Character,

THE Tenement of Townſide, moſt commodiouſly ſituated, and accommodated for the Purpoſe. It lies in the moſt direct Path North and South from one Colony through and to another, and ſhorter Diſtance by at leaſt 8 or 9 Miles than any other Road. A Tavern has always been greatly wanted near the Spot, on Account of its being at a convenient Diſtance from both Warwick North, and the Widow Dockery's South, about 17 Miles. The Site is eminently beautiful, the Houſing are abundantly ſufficient for a well accuſtomed Tavern, with Cellars, Stable, Cow and Hen Houſes, Kitchens, Meat Houſes, &c. a well ſtocked Garden, hanging over Cheſter River, and 18 Acres of excellent Paſture, divided by Poſts and Rails into many Lots. The Ferry, which, with great Coſt, is juſt now ſhortened to leſs than a Stone's Caſt, by Means of a Cauſe-way 16 Feet broad, and about 60 Rods in Length, with a Frame Landing and Skeow, will be alſo rented to the Tavern. This Place is alſo nobly ſituated for Trade; for many Years there was no other of any Account in theſe Parts till you come to Talbot, witneſs Sir E. C. Baronet, upon whoſe winding up his Clue here, the Trade became divided, and ſcattered about to New-town, George-town, Queen's-town, the Mills, the Traps and the Fairs, but Townſide remains in the ſame Place, in a better Condition than when it flouriſhed moſt; upon this Account I reſerve to be rented to a Batchelor Merchant, what is compleatly convenient for his Purpoſe, viz. a very good Brick Store Houſe, with barred Windows and Shutters, a Cellar throughout, Lodging Room, &c. above, Privilege of a Canoe Ferry for his Cuſtomers of Queen Ann's County, and Paſture and Stable Room for two Horſes; the Ware-houſes, Granary and Wharff, which a Veſſel of 2000 Buſhels may lie cloſe to and load. The Store and the Inn will be of mutual Advantage to each other.

If a Merchant Houſekeeper ſhould chuſe a Leaſe of all Townſide, he may have it, and a Tavern may be erected in Queen Ann's County; as I expect to be ready in the Fall to remove to my Farm, in Queen Ann's, either of the Premiſes may then be entered upon.----I ſuppoſe we have been ſufficiently particular, and refer the reſt to Treaty. H. CALLISTER.

Juſt imported in the Hawke, Captain Morton, from Briſtol, and to be SOLD by

JOSHUA FISHER, and SON,
In Front-ſtreet, near the Drawbridge,

TURTON's 10d. 12d. and 20d. Nails, Frying-pans, 8 by 10 Window Glaſs, Pewter well aſorted in ſmall Caſks, Trunks of Womens Shoes, Bed Ticking in Pieces, &c. &c. Alſo a very large Aſſortment of European and India Goods, lately imported from London. +

TO be ſold by publick Vendue, on the 14th Day of July next, A good and convenient Brick Houſe, with a Kitchen, Waſh-houſe, a good Stone Stable, Sheds, and a good Garden, ſituate in the Borough of Cheſter; it has long been a well accuſtomed publick Houſe, and was formerly kept by Aubrey Bevan, now in the Tenure of Walter Smith, and rents for Fifty Pounds per Year. Any Perſon inclining to purchaſe, may repair to ſaid Place, and be informed of the Title and Terms of Sale, by

To be SOLD,

A VERY valuable Tract of Land, containing upwards of 500 Acres, lying and being in Suſſex County, in the Province of New-Jerſey, and ſituated upon the River Delaware; it is well timbered, the Soil rich, and Plenty of Lime-ſtone; it joins the Plantations lately belonging to William Biſhop, and Walter Coheon, and will be ſold either together, or divided into Parcels, as may beſt ſuit the Purchaſers. For Terms apply to Mrs. MASTERS, and JOHN LAWRENCE, of Philadelphia, or Mr. SAMUEL TUCKER, junior, of Trenton. Tbc. 6 mo.

TO BE SOLD,

A Tract of Land, containing between 3 and 400 Acres, on George's Road, within three Miles of New-Brunſwick, in Middleſex County, Eaſt New-Jerſey; it is kind Land, well watered and timbered, and great Part of it may be made good Meadow. It will be either ſold together, or divided, as may beſt ſuit the Purchaſers. For further Particulars, enquire of Mr. Samuel Okaſon, at the Longbridge Farm; Mr. Samuel Tucker, jun. at Trenton, or of John Lawrence, in Philadelphia. Tbc. 3 M.

CAME to the Plantation of Andreas Boſton, of Upper Milford Townſhip, in Northampton County, on the 12th of May, a certain ſtray Mare, of a brown Colour, five Years old, about fourteen Hands high, has neither Brand nor Ear-mark, paces and trots, and is ſhod before. The Owner is deſired to come and prove his Property, pay Charges, and take her away. ⊕
